Section 5. Residuary Devise

5.01 The balance of my residuary estate shall consist of all property or money owned by me at the time of my death and not otherwise effectively disposed of in this will, including all insurance proceeds or other death benefits that are payable to my estate but excluding any property over which I may have a power of appointment, less all valid claims asserted against my estate and all expenses incurred in administering my estate, including expenses of administering nonprobate assets.

5.02 I give, devise and bequeath the balance of my residuary estate in trust to the trustee named in paragraph 2.02 of this will. The trustee shall hold, administer and distribute my trust estate as hereinafter provided in this will. 6.04 My personal representative shall have, in addition to any other powers, the power to invest, reinvest, sell, mortgage, lease or otherwise transfer or dispose of any part or all of my estate, without the necessity of obtaining prior or subsequent court approval.

6.05 My personal representative may make distributions either in cash or in kind. Distributions in kind may be made at the discretion of my personal representative. My personal representative may make any distributions under this will either (1) directly to the beneficiary, (2) in any form allowed by applicable state law for gifts or transfers to minors or persons under disability, (3) to the beneficiary's guardian, conservator, or caregiver for the benefit of the beneficiary, or (4) by direct payment of the beneficiary's expenses.

Section 7. Construction and Definitions

The following rules and definitions shall apply in the construction of this instrument and in the administration of my estate:

7.01 When an interest is given to the issue of a deceased person, distributions shall be made by representation whereunder the issue of the deceased person take and share equally the share of the estate that would have been taken by deceased person if he or she were alive.

7.02 Any reference to my "personal representative" in whatever form refers to the person, persons, or institution then acting as the personal representative of my estate.

7.03 If any devisee or other beneficiary under this will dies within 10 days after my death or under such circumstances where there is insufficient evidence in the judgment of my personal representative to determine whether such person has died within 10 days after my death, the devisee or beneficiary shall be deemed to have failed to survive me.

7.04 All questions as to the validity and construction of this will shall be governed by the laws of the state of Idaho.

7.05 The term "estate and death taxes" shall mean all estate, inheritance, transfer, succession, or other taxes or duties payable by reason of my death, including interest and penalties thereon.

Section 8. Payment of Taxes and Expenses

8.01 I direct my personal representative to pay the expenses of administering my estate, the expenses created by reason of my death, and all estate and death taxes payable with respect to property includable in my gross estate or taxable by reason of my death, whether or not such property is part of my probate estate and whether or not such taxes are payable by my estate or by the recipient of any such property. Such taxes and expenses should be paid out of my residuary estate without apportionment, but shall not be paid out of funds or property allocated to the trust described in section 11 of this will.

Section 9. Designation of Trust

9.01 The trustee shall administer my trust estate described in paragraph 3.01 of this will into what shall be known as the J. DANIEL MORGAN TRUST.

9.02 My sister, Ida K. Morgan, shall be the primary beneficiary of the J. Daniel Morgan Trust. Upon her death the Trust shall be divided into three shares, two of which shall be equal in value to 40% each of the total assets of the J. Daniel Morgan Trust and the third share shall be equal to 20% of the value of the assets of the J. Daniel Morgan Trust.

9.03 40% of the Trust assets shall remain in the said trust to be administered for the benefit of James Graham under the same terms and conditions of the Trust with James Graham as the primary beneficiary. Upon his death this share of the J. Daniel Morgan Trust assets shall be distributed to the wife of James Graham who is now married to him. If she fails to survive James Graham by at least 10 days this share of the Trust assets shall be distributed to the issue of James Graham by representation. The J. Daniel Morgan Trust shall then terminate.

9.04 40% of the assets of the J. Daniel Morgan Trust determined at the date of the death of Ida K. Morgan shall be distributed by the trustee to Harry Graham. If the said Harry Graham does not survive Ida K. Morgan by at least 10 days, the trustee shall distribute the stated 40% of the trust assets to his wife, to whom he is now married, if she fails to survive Ida K. Morgan by at least 10 days, the same shall go to the issue of Harry Graham by representation.

9.05 20% of the assets of the J. Daniel Morgan Trust determined at the date of the death of Ida K. Morgan shall be distributed by the trustee to James E. Crawford. If the said James E. Crawford does not survive Ida K. Morgan by at least 10 days, the trustee shall distribute the stated 20% of the trust assets to his wife, to whom he is now married, if she fails to survive Ida K. Morgan by at least 10 days, the same shall go to the issue of James E. Crawford by representation.

Section 10. J. Daniel Morgan Trust

10.01 During the life of my sister, the trustee may distribute so much of the income and principal of the J. Daniel Morgan Trust to or for the benefit of one or more persons within a class consisting of my beneficiaries, their wives, and their issue in such proportions and in such amounts as the trustee in its discretion may determine to be necessary or advisable for their health, education, support and maintenance, provided, however, that in exercising its discretion the trustee shall give primary consideration to the needs and general well being of my sister and secondary consideration to the needs of my other beneficiaries, their wives and their issue. Any income not distributed may be added periodically to principal.

10.02 The trustee is directed to distribute the principal and income of the J. Daniel Morgan Trust in accordance with the following guidelines:

(a) The primary purposes of the J. Daniel Morgan Trust are to provide for the comfortable support, medical care, and other best interests of my sister, having regard for my sister's other means of support; to provide for the comfortable support, medical care, and other best interests of my beneficiaries. The preservation of principal is not as important as the accomplishment of these objectives.

(b) In making distributions to beneficiaries other than my sister, the trustee may, but need not, consider all funds known to the trustee to be available to the beneficiary.

Section 11. Trustee Provisions

11.01 The trustee serving under any trust created in this will may perform every act reasonably necessary to administer the trust. In addition to and not in limitation of the powers, authorities and discretions granted to the trustee by statute, common law or under any administrative or court rule, the trustee is hereby authorized and empowered to hold, retain, invest, reinvest and manage without diversification as to kind, amount, or risk of non-productivity in realty or personalty and without limitation by statute or rule of law, partition, sell, exchange, grant, convey, deliver, assign, transfer, lease, option, mortgage, pledge, abandon, borrow, loan, contract, distribute in cash or kind or partly in each at fair market value on the date of distribution, without requiring pro rata distribution of specific assets and without requiring pro rata allocation of the tax bases of such assets, hold in nominee form, continue businesses, carry out agreements, deal with other fiduciaries and business organizations in which the trustee may have an interest; establish reserves, release powers, and abandon, settle or contest claims; employ attorneys, accountants, custodians of the trust assets, other agents or assistants as deemed advisable to act with or without discretionary powers and compensate them and pay their expenses from income or principal or both.

11.02 The trustee may make any payments under any trust under my will either (1) directly to the beneficiary, (2) in any form allowed by applicable state law for gifts or transfers to minors or persons under disability, (3) to the beneficiary's guardian, conservator, or caregiver for the benefit of the beneficiary, or (4) by direct payment of the beneficiary's expenses. A receipt by the recipient for any such distribution, if such distribution is made in a manner consistent with the proper exercise of the trustee's duties, shall fully discharge the trustee.

11.03 If for any reason the trustee is unwilling or unable to act as to any property of any trust created hereunder, the trustee may designate in writing an individual or a bank or trust company to act as cotrustee or substitute trustee as to such property or with respect to any provision, and may revoke any such designation at will. Each cotrustee or substitute trustee so acting shall exercise all fiduciary powers granted by my will unless expressly limited by the trustee in the instrument designating such cotrustee or substitute trustee. Any cotrustee or substitute trustee may resign at any time by written notice to the trustee.

11.04 No trustee shall be obligated to examine the accounts, records, or acts, or in any way or manner be responsible for any act or omission to act on the part of any previous trustee or of the personal representative of my estate. No trustee shall be liable to my personal representative or to any beneficiary for the consequences of any action taken by such trustee which would, but for the prior removal of such trustee, have been a proper exercise by such trustee of the authority granted to the trustee under my will, until actual receipt by such trustee of notice of such removal. Any trustee may acquire from the beneficiaries, or from their guardians or conservators, instruments in writing releasing such trustee from liability which may have arisen from the acts or omissions to act of such trustee, and indemnifying such trustee from liability therefor, and such instruments, if acquired from all then living beneficiaries, or from their guardians or conservators, shall be conclusive and binding upon all parties, born or unborn, who may have, or may in the future acquire, an interest in the trust.

11.05 Any successor trustee at any time serving hereunder, whether corporate or individual, shall have all the title, rights, powers and privileges, and be subject to all of the obligations and duties, both discretionary and ministerial, as herein granted to the original trustee hereunder, and shall be subject to any restrictions herein imposed upon the original trustee. Any fiduciary succeeding to the trust business of any corporate trustee shall become a successor trustee under my will with like powers, duties, and obligations.

11.06 Any trustee may resign by giving written notice thereof to my personal representative, if serving, to any adult beneficiary, and to the parents or guardians of any minor beneficiary then eligible to receive current income, and to any other trustee then serving. Such written notice shall be delivered by hand or by certified mail and shall become effective upon the acceptance of appointment by the successor trustee.

Section 12. Administrative Provisions

12.01 Any trust established under this instrument shall be administered in a timely and efficient manner consistent with its terms, free of active judicial intervention and without order, approval or other action by any court, subject only to the jurisdiction of a court being invoked by the trustees or other interested parties or as otherwise provided by law.

12.02 I direct that no trustee shall be required to give any bond in any jurisdiction, and if, notwithstanding this direction, any bond is required by any law, statute, or rule of court, no sureties be required.

12.03 Any trustee under this instrument shall be entitled to reasonable compensation commensurate with services actually performed and shall be entitled to reimbursement for expenses actually and properly incurred.

12.04 No beneficiary shall have any right to anticipate, sell, assign, mortgage, pledge or otherwise dispose of or encumber all or any part of any trust estate established for his or her benefit under this instrument, nor shall any part of such trust estate, including income, be liable for the debts or obligations of any beneficiary or be subject to attachment, garnishment, execution, creditor's bill or other legal or equitable process.

12.05 The trustee of any trust established under this instrument shall not be obligated to undertake litigation for collection of any benefits or assets payable by reason of the testator's death including, but not limited to, benefits under life insurance policies, employee benefit plans or other contracts, plans, or arrangements providing for payment or transfer at death which are payable to such trust unless it is indemnified to its satisfaction against any liability and expense of such litigation. Payment to such trustee and the receipt of or release by the trustee shall fully discharge any payor and no payor need inquire into or take notice of this agreement or see to the application of such payment. Anything in this instrument to the contrary notwithstanding, any benefits or assets payable by reason of my death which are payable to the trustee of any trust established under this instrument shall not be subject to the claims against my estate. Such benefits shall not be subject to the control of my personal representative or included in the property administered as a part of my probate estate.

12.06 All trusts created hereunder shall in any event terminate no later than 21 years after the death of the last survivor of the group composed of myself, my sister, and other named beneficiaries living at my death. The property held in trust shall be discharged free of any trust and shall immediately vest in and be distributed to the persons then entitled to the income therefrom in the proportions in which they are beneficiaries of the income, and for this purpose only, any person then eligible to receive discretionary payments of income of a particular trust shall be treated as being entitled to receive the income, and if more than one person is so treated, the group of such persons shall be treated as being entitled to receive such income as a class, to be distributed among them by representation.

12.07 In all matters pertaining to the administration of any trust under this instrument, when more than two trustees are acting, the concurrence and joinder of a majority of such trustees shall control; but any trustee may dissent or abstain from a decision of the majority, and such trustee shall be absolved from personal liability by registering such dissent or abstention in the records of such trust, and shall thereafter act with the other trustees in any way necessary or appropriate to effectuate the decision of the majority. If two trustees are acting, however, the joinder of both of them shall be required.

12.08 At any time there is a corporate trustee acting, such corporate trustee shall be the custodian of my estate and trust property and of the books and records of my estate or trust, and may perform all ministerial acts necessary for the acquisition and transfer of personal property and money, including the signing and endorsement of checks, receipts, stock certificates, and other instruments, and no person need inquire into the propriety of any such act.

12.09 Any trustee may release in whole or in part, temporarily or permanently, any power, authority, or discretion conferred by my will or by a trust created thereunder, by a writing delivered to any co-trustee, and to each beneficiary then eligible to receive income distributions from any trust or, if none, to all ascertainable beneficiaries. Such renunciation or release shall not affect the grant of power, authority, or discretion renounced or released.

12.10 The trustee shall report no less frequently than annually to all adult beneficiaries and to the guardian of any beneficiaries then eligible to receive current income. The report shall disclose all receipts, disbursements, and distributions made during the reporting period, and identify all property then held as the principal of the trust. The records of the trust shall be open at all reasonable times to the inspection of the beneficiaries of the trust and their representatives.

12.11 The trustee, in its discretion and at the expense of the estate, may institute, join, compromise, settle, dismiss, and defend any trust created under this will and any property administered hereunder in any judicial or administrative proceeding. The trustee is authorized to retain such legal counsel and ancillary personnel as it may deem appropriate in the exercise of its discretion hereunder.

12.12 Notwithstanding the general powers conferred upon the trustee, no trustee shall exercise or participate in the exercise of discretion with respect to the distribution of income or principal, or the termination of any trust administered hereunder (1) to or for the benefit of such trustee; or to or for the benefit of any beneficiary in whom is vested at the time of such exercise the power to remove or to participate in the removal of such trustee or to designate or to participate in the designation of a replacement trustee, which power can be exercised by the beneficiary without the consent or joinder of at least one other person having a substantial interest in the trust estate which is adverse to that of the beneficiary; to the extent that the exercise of such discretion is in excess of that which is necessary for the education, health, maintenance, and support of such trustee or of such beneficiary, as the case may be; (2) to any person such trustee or any such beneficiary is legally obligated to support, to the extent such distribution is for the purpose of discharging such support obligation; or (3) which would cause the disqualification of an otherwise qualified disclaimer.
