NOTIFICATION OF ADDRESS CHANGE

December 3rd, 2004

CURRENT RESIDENT AT: 1378 Welch Rd

Caribou County is in the process of enhancing its 911 system. The new system will provide a 911 caller's name, address, and call-back number. This will enable the emergency services to locate the caller in the event the caller is unable to speak or doesn't know their address. Extensive databases are involved to form a Master Street Address Guide (MSAG). Your current physical address is not compatible with MSAG standards and therefore has been changed to:

NEW ADDRESS: 1278 Welch Rd

This change is absolutely necessary in order to complete the enhancement process. Some changes are minor such as adding a prefix/suffix direction to the road name such as N for north, S for south, and so forth. Other changes include road name or address number modifications. If you have been readdressed to your own lane you'll find a map is attached to this letter. The first set of signage to your lane will be done by Caribou County; there after you will be responsible for maintaining the signs to your lane. If your address number has changed, Caribou County will update the numbers on your post as soon as possible.

Caribou County will make the necessary changes with the Postal Service for you. Do not submit a PS Form 3575, Change of Address. Mail addressed with your old address will be forwarded automatically for a period of one year. We advise you to update correspondents of your new address as soon as possible to avoid delay in mail delivery. We will also update your telephone service provider.

If you are renting this residence, please notify the owner of the changes as well. The new address will be effective as of January 3rd, 2005. Appeals to this change must be done by December 31st, 2004. Please contact the E911 Address Manager listed below to appeal or if you feel you've received this notification in error, information about your old address is incorrect, or if you have any questions. All changes have been made under the direction of the Caribou County Commissioner's. We apologize for the inconvenience.
