Re: 55-7050, 55-7052, and ~~55-4140~~

Dec. 8, 1987

Dear Mr. Ferris:

After completing your stockwater exams and doing the necessary research, I have some answers to your questions. First, your area is included in the Adjudication.

Second, the Sommercamp Spring situation consists of the spring, buried pipeline, and five troughs. Your water right, 55-7050, covers the trough near the spring. The other four troughs are on BLM land in sections 4, 5, and 6. Two of the troughs are covered by two BLM licenses, 55-2216 and 55-7279. The other two troughs will be added to these BLM rights. All four places will show Sommercamp Spring as a point of diversion. The BLM will be notified of the necessary steps to take.

The last issue concerns your Permit 55-7052 for the spring in Section 12, across the Cow Creek Road from your house. As we discussed, the claim 55-4140 includes the land (SW1/4 of NE1/4) shown on the permit. The claim has a much earlier priority date (1896) than the permit (1972). Your interests would be served by relinquishing the permit and amending the claim to include an additional point of diversion in the SW1/4 of NE1/4, which is the spring we drove to, by the trough. It is probable that this spring was inadvertently omitted from the original claim filing.

Please look over the attached amended claim to see if it is complete. A copy of the original claim is included for your benefit. If there are any other overlooked springs within the area in Section 12 that have been historically used and are still used, be sure to include them on the amended form. When you are satisfied that the information is correct, please return the signed and notarized claim to this office. No fee is involved. By giving up the Permit and changing the Claim as described, you will have a water right that has an earlier priority date, more water, more points of diversion, and a greater area of use than allowed under the Permit. This should be of great benefit during the Adjudication.

RECEIVED

APR 04 1988

Also, the enclosed Relinquishment form for 55-7052 needs to be completed and returned. If you have any questions or need additional help, please contact this office.
