IN THE MATTER OF:

USFS Water Use Right
#31-4050

AFFIDAVIT

State Of Idaho
County of Clark

I, James F. Hagenbarth, being first duly sworn, deposes and says: that by the filing of water use right #31-4050 (as advertised in the Jefferson County Star, Volume 78, Issue 2 of Thursday, January 8, 1981) the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USFS) is infringing on an existing water use made by Margaret, David, and James Hagenbarth. As owners of the property on which the development lies and with no knowledge of an existing agreement or easement with the USFS, we take exception to filing #31-4050. Since 1918 this land has been out of federal ownership and has undoubtedly been used for livestock grazing. Since 1971, David, Margaret, and James Hagenbarth have leased this ground to a member of the East Beaver Grazing Assosiation. Along with this lease is the priveledge to use the existing water for stockwater purposes. We again take exception to water use application #31-4050 on two points:

- 1) That the water applied for has been in use as stockwater since 1918 on this private tract of ground (Tax #1 and Tax #2, Sec. 7, Township 13 North, Range 37 East).
- 2) That the point of diversion and place of use lies on private ground and to my knowledge no easements or right of ways have been granted to the USFS for this development.
