Dear Sirs:

Upon examination of the affidavit of publication, which you submitted concerning the above numbered transfer application, we note that several errors were made. We are enclosing a copy of the legal notice as it was submitted to you for publication and also a copy of the affidavit of publication indicating how it was published. Please note the three check marks on the affidavit of publication indicating where the errors were made. As we did not receive a tear sheet for proofing prior to publication of this notice, we request that you republish this notice, at your expense, for two consecutive weeks on March 4 and 11, 1971. Because of this roadvertising, the date for protests will have to be changed from February 8, 1971 to March 22, 1971. We have indicated this change on the copy of the legal notice enclosed. We would appreciate it, if you would submit a tear sheet prior to publishing this notice in order that we may check it and eliminate any further delay in this matter. We would also appreciate receiving the affidavit of publication as soon after the last day of publication as possible.

We will withhold payment of the certified bill, dated February 1, 1971, until we have received the affidavit of publication indicating that this notice was advertised correctly as requested.

Very truly yours,
