INSTRUCTIONS

Your claim should set forth all necessary information to describe your claimed right. Failure to give enough information may make your claim of little value. Some of the items in the form may not apply to your situation. Please use additional sheets if space provided is not sufficient to fully answer the questions.

Paragraph No.

1. Give full name and post office address of person or company making the claim.
2. Describe the point of diversion by 40-acre subdivision. Give the name of the source, the drainage to which it is tributary if surface water, and the county in which the point of diversion is located. If there is more than one point of diversion, list others in the remarks section.
3. Give the priority dates and the quantities of water that you claim. You should accurately list the dates that you initiated each new use of the water. List separately the dates and amounts of water involved in each enlargement of the diversion. (Example: if you diverted 0.8 c.f.s. of water for irrigation on May 18, 1871, for the first time for use on 40 acres of land, and then later you enlarged the diversion by diverting an additional 0.4 c.f.s. of water to irrigate an additional 20 acres of land on June 1, 1901, your right should be described as follows:

Date of priority claimed:	May 18, 1871	amount:	0.8 c.f.s. or   acre feet
	June 1, 1901	amount:	0.4 c.f.s. or   acre feet
	Total claimed: 1.2 c.f.s. or   acre feet

Since the water was used for irrigation between April 1 and October 31 on that particular farm, part b. would be completed as follows:

use irrigation period of use from April 1 to October 31 (both dates inclusive). If the water had been used for any other purpose, you would have described the priority date, amount, use, and period of use in a similar manner.

4. Describe the diversion works and explain any changes since the right was first initiated.
5. If the water is used for irrigation, give the total acreage and list the lands irrigated by 40-acre subdivisions and complete the other questions.
- 6, 7, & 8. Describe any other uses of water.
9. In the remarks section, give any information or details that you feel are not fully covered or that need clarifying. You might explain your operation, where the water is returned to if for an industrial or non-consumptive right, the condition and temperature of the returned water, and any other information to help explain your claim.

You may wish to include as a part of your claim, affidavits of witnesses who are familiar with your right and who have a personal knowledge of the circumstances which you have described in your claim. You may submit maps, drawings, certified copies of posted notices which may have been filed in the county courthouse, water measurement records, or any other document which you feel will support your claim.

Your claim will be advertised in a county newspaper for two weeks. Exceptions to your claim which dispute the water right that you have described may be received by the Department of Reclamation and you will be provided a copy of such exceptions.

The fee for filing this claim with the Department of Water Administration, Statehouse, Annex 2, Boise, Idaho, 83707, is $10.00.

Dear Mr. Sullivan:

This letter is pertaining to my visit to your property and that of others on August 8, 1973.

A review of the problem shows that you have a use right for your pond with a priority date later than other users on the ditch.

It is my opinion, however, that a release of water from your pond would only satisfy the problem for one day. The lowering of the pond level would allow some water to pass through the pond area, but only in limited quantities.

There was plenty of water available for appropriation from the Little Salmon River at the time of my visit. It would seem to me the whole problem lies in getting it through the ditch system. The inlet pipe and headgate are set too high above the stream bed to get sufficient head to pass the water down the ditch.

The headgate is permanently installed and lowering it would not be feasible. Therefore, I suggest that the creek cobbles be raised in such a manner as to provide an effective diversion dam to raise the water level at the outlet pipe from eight to twelve inches. This would increase the water level at your pond, which could be controlled by the headgate, and give everyone sufficient water for their needs and keep your pond full as well.

Sincerely,

KENNETH H. FOIT, P. E.
Western District Engineer

Re: Claim to a Water Right Nos. 78-4037
78-4040

Dear Mr. Sullivan:

Last year, you filed two claims for water from the Little Salmon River, which are apparently used for irrigation and recreation purposes.

Your first claim, No. 78-4037 is similar to claims filed by your neighbors (R. G. Wallace, O. R. Kounsoree, Joseph E. and Beatrice E. Young, and A. B. Norman) with regard to priority date and use of water. I therefore assume that you agree that they have an equal right with you to use of the ditch for irrigation purposes.

Your second claim, No. 78-4040 is for a later priority use for recreation purposes in a three acre foot capacity pond. Because this right is apparently later than the claimed irrigation right which you share with your neighbors, you should understand that you have no right to hold any water in the pond if your neighbors are not receiving the water they need for irrigation. Any stoppage of the flow of the ditch to hold water in the pond which prevents your neighbors from using the water for irrigation purposes would probably be an unlawful interference with a valid property right. They could seek to have the court enjoin you from such action and to pay any damages sustained by them. I therefore suggest that you give this serious consideration before any future disputes arise.

Very truly yours,

R. KEITH KIDDINGTON
Director
