CLAIM TO A WATER RIGHT

Under the provisions of Section 42-243, Idaho Code, any person using or claiming rights to the public waters of Idaho established by diversion and application to a beneficial use must file a claim with the Department of Water Resources on or before June 30, 1983. Exempted from this filing are single family domestic uses as defined in Section 42-230(d), Idaho Code. Also exempted are rights represented by a permit, license, decree, adjudicated right, or a previously filed claim.

The filing of this claim does not confirm the water right claimed but failure to file may result in forfeiture of a water right.

RE: Claim No. 67-4310

Dear Claimant:

The Department of Water Resources has completed the advertising of your claim to a water right, and no further action is authorized under Section 42-243 and 42-244, IDAHO CODE. Your claim will be retained in our files and will be available at any time for use by you or the court.

The filing and advertising of the claim does not confirm the water right claimed, but will serve to record and preserve the information and the evidence which you included in your claim.

If, at a later date, you find that you have additional information or supporting evidence that you would like to have included with the claim, you may have that information or evidence added at any time. Please refer to the claim identification number when corresponding with this office.

We are enclosing a copy of your claim for your records. If you have questions, or if this office may be of further assistance, please feel free to contact us.

Yours truly,

DAVID B. SHAW

Claim to Water Rights) AFFIDAVIT

Glen E. Campbell, who after being sworn, and now upon his oath, testifies to the following facts and conditions:

1. That he is Glen E. Campbell residing at 555 West Main, Weiser, Idaho; and
2. That he was born on July 11, 1925 in Weiser, Idaho, and has lived in and around Weiser, Idaho continuously since the date of his birth; and
3. That real property generally described as SW $\frac{1}{4}$ of Sec 10, T11N, R6W, B.M., approximately 160 acres, and including what is now known as Weiser Hot Springs, was purchased by the Campbell Land & Livestock Co., October 20, 1917; and
4. That his father, James W. Campbell was then the owner and proprietor of said company; and
5. That the same property was sold by said company to James W. Campbell as his separate property on January 1, 1920; and
6. That ownership of said property remained with the parents of the affiant, James W. Campbell and Lena O. Campbell until sold by the latter as her sole and separate property to W. T. Branstetter on November 10, 1947; and
7. That Campbell Hot Springs, now known as Weiser Hot Springs was built in 1917 and then offered commercial and or recreational uses of a swimming pool, hot water baths, camp sites, temporary residence facilities, and a dance hall; and
8. That the pool, baths, and dance hall were each heated by natural hot water found on or under said property and that the camp sites and temporary residence facilities used the same hot water for domestic purposes; and

9. That Campbell Hot Springs burned in 1924 but was rebuilt shortly thereafter with the same commercial/recreational uses continued through 19~~48~~⁷⁸; and
10. That the natural hot water was used periodically for agricultural purposes as the heat source for an incubator (1924-37), to scald hogs (1940's), and continuously from 1917 through 1948 to water stock, both sheep and cattle; and
11. That upon information supplied directly from James W. Campbell and Lena O. Campbell, and upon personal observation and knowledge, the affiant states that natural hot water found on or under said property has been used continuously from 1917 to the present for commercial/recreational use and repeatedly during that same period for agricultural purposes.
