being first duly sworn,

deposes and says:

I, Laurence Gould was born on Cottonwood creek in 1895, on a ranch joining what is now the Woody Jones ranch, I lived there with my folks until 1909 when we moved to a place about six miles away. My sister and her husband and family owned what is now the Jones ranch, from about 1923 until about 1952, so I know a great deal about the place.

The Jones ranch has always been irrigated with water from Cottonwood creek for as long as I can remember. From what I learned from my father and from other people who lived on the creek I think the Jones place has been irrigated since the very early eighties.
