Dear Mr. & Mrs. Haight:

We have received your letter informing us of the purchase of the property covered under the above referenced claims.

However, once a claim is filed it is considered appurtenant to the land that it covers and goes with the land in a sale. For these rights we do not change the name on the original water right, but we will place your names in the file as the present owner and any correspondence concerning these claims will be mailed to you. Please remember that because the rights are appurtenant to the land, whoever owns the land then owns the water rights.

If you have any questions concerning this policy, please feel free to contact us.

Sincerely,
