Memo

Date : 11/5/85

From : Allen

To : Loren & Jim

Subject: Definition of Storage rights involved with Permits 37-8160 & 37-8161

As initially recommended for license by Jim the period of use for storage & use from storage did not overlap. I discussed this matter with Bob Fleenor to determine what was meant by the term storage. Bob indicated that storage is when water is in the reservoir. It is logical then that the period of use for storage should reflect the time period in which water is in the reservoir and also the time period for storage should be in force when water is being taken from storage for various uses. In reviewing the permits as granted they are consistent with the above analysis however the period of use for storage does not conform ~~with~~ with the actual time period when water is in the reservoirs.

MICROFILMED

MAY 12 1987

I discussed with Bob Fleenor the possibility of amending the Period of Use and Bob indicated that amendments must be made to change the Period of Use from that originally listed on the Permit. He indicated that if we feel that even though the period is expanded that the right is not being expanded and it is a matter of book keeping that we could document the file with 2 memo and the extension of period of use may be granted.

I recommend that the permits be recommended for license as follows.

37-8160

Storage for Livestock	2/1 to 8/31	0.9 A.F.
Livestock from Storage	4/16 to 8/31	0.9 A.F.
Storage for wild life	1/1 to 12/31	0.2 A.F.
Wild life from Storage	1/1 to 12/31	0.2 A.F.

Total not to exceed 1.0 A.F./Ann. which is capacity of reservoir.

37-8161

Storage for Livestock	2/1 to 11/30	0.5 A.F.
Livestock from Storage	5/1 to 6/30	0.5 A.F.
Livestock from Storage	10/1 to 11/30	0.5 A.F.
Storage for wild life	2/1 to 11/30	0.1 A.F.
