Under the provisions of Section 42-243, Idaho Code, any person using or claiming rights to the public waters of Idaho established by diversion and application to a beneficial use must file a claim with the Department of Water Resources on or before June 30, 1983. Exempted from this filing are single family domestic uses as defined in Section 42-230(d), Idaho Code. Also exempted are rights represented by a permit, license, decree, adjudicated right, or a previously filed claim.

The filing of this claim does not confirm the water right claimed but failure to file may result in forfeiture of a water right.

Donald T. Bray Claim of Water Right

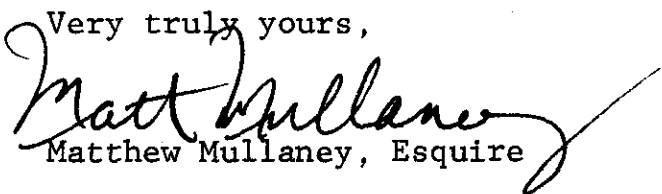

Dear Mary:

Thank you for your letter of June 28. I find that the map is correct and the legal description is incorrect. Per your instructions and in my capacity as attorney for Donald T. Bray and drafter of this claim, I have made a correction of my typographical error by whiting out the 40 acres under NENE of Section 33 and inserting the 40 acres under the NWNWSection 33. I believe you will now find that the legal description and the map are correct and consistent one with the other.

Returned herewith is the claim form, corrected and with my initials, together with the filing fee.

Thanks for your help. It was nice to talk to you again. It's been awhile. Good luck.

Very truly yours,

Matthew Mullaney, Esquire

RE: Claim No. 37-4418

Dear Claimant:

The Department of Water Resources has completed the advertising of your claim to a water right, and no further action is authorized under Section 42-243 and 42-244, IDAHO CODE. Your claim will be retained in our files and will be available at any time for use by you or the court.

The filing and advertising of the claim does not confirm the water right claimed, but will serve to record and preserve the information and the evidence which you included in your claim.

If, at a later date, you find that you have additional information or supporting evidence that you would like to have included with the claim, you may have that information or evidence added at any time. Please refer to the claim identification number when corresponding with this office.

We are enclosing a copy of your claim for your records. If you have questions, or if this office may be of further assistance, please feel free to contact us.

Yours truly,

ALLEN D. MERRITT
