Dear Mr. McBride:

In our final review of your claim to a water right from an unnamed creek tributary to Fox Creek, it was brought to our attention that the points of diversion in Item 5 were not consistent with the plat map under Item 8. Therefore, enclosed you will find an amended claim to a water right which, for your convenience, has been retyped in our office and which describes the points of diversion in Item 5 as they were platted in Item 8 of your original claim.

Please review this form and initial any corrections which you feel are necessary. Once you are satisfied the amended claim is correct, please sign it in the presence of a notary public and return it to our eastern regional office for further processing. It will not be necessary to send additional money, as there is no statutory filing fee for an amended claim.

Respectfully submitted,

ERNEST M. CARLSEN
