To Whom It May Concern:

Claim for water rights.

The property I now own was purchased by my father in law Louis Hogge Jr. from Gerold and Cleone East agreement dated July 21, 1976. In that agreement it was stated that Louis Hogge would be allowed to pump water from the irrigation ditch which separates the property to irrigate the said property. The property line is the center of the irrigation ditch.

I owned property connected to this property and was asked by Louis Hogge, my Father in Law, to help him keep the land watered. I did set up a pumping system and have periodically pumped water from the irrigation ditch up onto the property since 1976. The Property was given to us, Ray and Debbie Taysom, by agreement dated October 29, 1992. Since that time I have continued to pump water from the irrigation ditch to water the property.

Since that time the connecting property has changed hands, Gerold and Cleone East passed away leaving the property to Clifford Terro (Grandson) and he in turn later sold it to Rashed Bisharat, who is the present owner.

Thank You,

Ray Taysom
