8. Custody.

Both natural parents shall have the joint legal custody of the parties' minor child, namely:

Katherine Sivill Birthdate April 1, 1983 Age 16, with the primary physical custody, care and control of such being placed with Wife until further order of the Court.

Decisions regarding the education, welfare, training, and care of the child are part of the decisions to be made jointly by both parents.

9. Visitation.

Husband shall have the right of reasonable and liberal visitation with the minor child at all reasonable times and places as the parties, and the minor child can agree. The parties agree that they will take into consideration the minor child's schedule, activities and desires when determining specific visitation between the Husband and the minor child. Wife agrees to encourage minor child to visit Husband on a regular basis.

Since the parties separation, the minor child has attempted to spend a portion of each weekend with each parent. The parties and the minor child will continue this regular visitation schedule as best it can be accomplished when reviewing each party's and the minor child's respective schedules.

C. Medical Insurance.

As an element of support, Husband shall maintain a policy of health insurance covering medical, surgical, hospital, dental, orthodontic, optical and prescription drug expenses for the minor child, and to the extent of any non-covered items or expenses, Husband and Wife shall share in proportion to their guideline incomes with Wife paying forty percent (40%) and Husband paying sixty percent (60%) of all uninsured health related expenses on behalf of their minor child.

D. College Expenses.

The parties recognize the importance of higher education and in the event the parties' minor child desires to obtain an undergraduate degree at any accredited college or university, both parties agree to contribute equally toward the cost of tuition, necessary books and incidental expenses of such education even though such child is no longer a minor.

E. Credits Against Child Support.

12. Income Taxes.

Each party shall pay and discharge all such encumbrances and obligations with respect to his/her respective property and hold the other free and harmless from any liability and/or expense therefor. Husband and Wife shall, respectively, be responsible for and pay any taxes which may be incurred or accrue to his/her respective property as a result of the division of property set forth herein.

In addition to the previous paragraph regarding the minor child's college expenses, the parties also agree that they shall hold the following properties jointly in trust for the minor child's college education and for such other purposes as Husband and Wife may agree;

18. Release of Estate Rights.

Each party releases all right to share in the estate of the other, or to serve as personal representative or administrator of the estate of the other, except only as provided by Will or Codicil to Will executed subsequent to the date of this Agreement.

19. Community Debts.

The parties, in addition to any obligation heretofore listed and assumed by either party in the division of property have incurred community debts as listed on Exhibit "D" and agree to assume and pay such debts as indicated in such Exhibit. To the extent any debt exists which is not listed on Exhibit "D" or otherwise dealt with in this Stipulation, then the party who incurred such debt(s) shall assume and pay such debt(s) in full and hold the non-incurring party free and harmless from any liability and/or expense therefore. The parties agree to indemnify and hold each other harmless from any liability and/or expense associated with payment of the obligations assumed by each herein. The parties agree that the property apportioned to each party in the division of property is sufficient for each party to pay the debts assumed by that party.

20. Restoration of Former Name.

That Wife's former name of Mitro may be restored to Wife.

21. Attorney Fees.

That each party shall pay his or her own attorney fees, if any, incurred in this matter.
