Dear Mr. Yates:

One of the conditions of approval of your water Permit No. 63-7137 (see last page of your approved permit) was that evidence of the extent of development be submitted as proof of application of water to beneficial use to this office on or before October 1, 1973. Enclosed is an affidavit form which must be used to submit the required proof of beneficial use.

If you have not fully completed your project, and you have not previously received an extension of time, you may request an extension of time provided the delay is for reasonable cause as indicated in Section 42-204, Idaho Code, amended. If you have been prevented from proceeding by a governmental agency or by litigation, more than one extension of time can be granted.

Either the beneficial use affidavit or a request for an extension of time must be received by this Department on or before the above mentioned date, otherwise the permit will lapse and be of no further force or effect.

MAKING PROOF OF BENEFICIAL USE

HOW TO MAKE PROOF

In order for a permit holder to complete the permit and obtain a water license, he must submit proof of application of the water to beneficial use on or before the date set forth in his permit. Each permit holder will be notified that proof is due 60 days prior to the date set for such proof. In order for the proof to be valid, it must be received by the Department on or before that date. Proof is made upon a form which is available from the Department. It is very important that you complete this form as completely as possible, making sure that the information you give is accurate and complete. Failure to do so may cause additional expense and delay in receiving a license. The information that you give on the form will provide the department with the data necessary to make a field examination which is necessary before the license can be issued. If the information found on the proof form is found to be a misrepresentation of the right you have developed, the department may refuse to issue you a license. The development must correspond to that described by the Permit. If it does not, you should amend your permit to cover the development. Forms are available through the Department.

WHAT TO DO IN CASE YOU HAVE NOT COMPLETED THE APPLICATION OF WATER TO BENEFICIAL USE

If you have not been able to complete the application of water to beneficial use under your permit within the time allowed, due to reasons beyond your control, you may apply to the Department of Reclamation for an extension of time. However, in order for an application for extension of time to be considered it must be filed prior to the date on which proof of beneficial use is due on your permit. Each application for extension of time is considered on its own merits.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU FAIL TO MAKE PROOF OF BENEFICIAL USE ON TIME

If you have applied the water to beneficial use but were unable to submit proof of application of water to beneficial use on or before the date set for such proof and your permit has lapsed, you may petition the Department within 60 days from the date that a notice of lapse was sent to you, to reinstate your permit. In order for the department to reinstate a permit, you must show reasonable cause why such permit should be reinstated. Submission of Proof of Beneficial Use within 60 days will automatically be considered by the Department as cause for reinstatement. The priority of all reinstated permits will be advanced a time equal to the number of days that such showing is subsequent to the date set for proof. After 60 days there is no way in which the department can reinstate the permit.

ISSUANCE OF LICENSE

After the Department of Reclamation has completed an examination of your proof and if it appears that you have complied with the terms of the permit, the Department will issue a water license. That license becomes prima facie evidence of a water right. The license will include the maximum rate of diversion, the total volume of water which may be diverted, the period of the year during which you can use the water, the beneficial use to which you can apply the water, and the priority which you have established and any other limiting factors in the water right.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILING PROOF OF APPLICATION OF WATER TO BENEFICIAL USE

1. Give the name and post office address of the permit holder. If the person making proof is other than that person who originally applied for the permit, that person must either be an elected officer of the company, a general partner of a partnership, must have been assigned the permit from the original owner, or must hold a valid power of attorney from the permit holder on file with the Department of Reclamation.

2. Give the number of the permit upon which you are making proof.

3. Give the date of priority which you wish to establish. That priority normally is the date upon which the Department received the application. This can be found on the top line on the back page of the permit.

4. Describe the source from which you have appropriated the water by giving the name and the location of the point of diversion as described by 40 acre subdivisions of the Federal Land Survey.

5a. Describe the amount of water in cubic feet per second or acre feet and the use to which you have applied the water, and the period during the season which you have been using the water.

5b. Give the total amount of water you have appropriated. This will not necessarily be the amount shown on the permit but should be determined accurately by measurement.

5c. Describe how and by whom the measurement of the amount of water appropriated was made and give the name of the person making the measurement. This person should be someone who has a recognized ability and the necessary training to make such a measurement.

6. If you convey water through facilities owned by persons other than yourself, complete 6a and 6b.

7a. Describe the means by which you divert the water.

7b. Describe the type of measuring device which you have installed and if the device is not a standard device, attach to the proof form a rating table which will allow this department to determine the quantity of water going through the device or being stored in the reservoir.

7c. Give the well driller's name and address and the date that the well was completed.

8. Describe any uses you may have other than irrigation.

9. Describe the acreage which you have irrigated by listing the number of acres irrigated in each 40-acre tract.

10. Remarks.

Sign and date the form and have your signature acknowledged by a Notary Public. For permits involving irrigation of one (1) acre or more, and if they are available, obtain a copy of an aerial photograph of the property in question from your local Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Office. That map should clearly show the lands you irrigate and the section corner near the lands being irrigated. Mail the form and the above information to the Department of Reclamation, Statehouse - Annex 2, Boise, Idaho 83707.

Dear Mr. Yates:

Concerning your telephone conversation of today's date, the Department of Reclamation does allow an individual to submit proof of beneficial use prior to the one year of beneficial use. The Department has used the one year of beneficial use as a maximum length of time rather than the minimum.

You should be advised, however, that your beneficial use will not be received as complete until your application has been approved and is in permit standing. This will be an additional week or so.

If we may be of further assistance, please contact us.

Very truly yours,

Donald W. McEldowney
