RE: Claim to Water Right on Rattlesnake Springs

Dear Mr. Hobbs:

Our office has recently reviewed your claim to a water right on Rattlesnake Springs and is returning it to you for clarification of a few items. Please find enclosed your original claim along with a new claim form with instructions.

Recent changes in the claim filing statutes allow for filing a stockwater claim for less than 1000 head of cattle for a fee of thirty dollars ($30.00). Stockwater claims for more than 1000 head of range cattle have a current fee of two hundred dollars ($200.00). Since you used the old claim form the number of stock was not listed on your claim so we cannot assess the proper fee. Additionally your original claim indicated that the water was used at various points down drainage and the map showed a pipeline extending several thousand feet beyond the springs. To properly record the use you should legally describe each trough or place of use in item 6 and clearly show its location on the map.

Please re-file your claim on the enclosed blank form and return it to our office for processing. If you have any questions please feel free to contact our office.

Sincerely,

Allen Merritt
Water Resource Engineer
