MEMORANDUM

TO: File 86-7158
FROM: Sharla
DATE: July 1, 1991
RE: Storage Capacity

The examiner recommends the uses licensed under this right to be diversion to storage, storage for irrigation, irrigation from storage, irrigation and storage for recreation. He also indicates on the exam that water from the spring and the other sources is sent into small pools to cut down on the silt and is rediverted from there for these other uses.

This being the case, it is more appropriate that irrigation and storage for recreation be the only uses licensed under this right. This is further warranted by the fact that the examination was made in July of last year, during the summer time when obviously storage would not be taking place. Yet the examiner has made calculations on diversions taking place from the Potlatch River and springs. This also indicates that the ponds are simply facilities to hold the water until it can be rediverted for the irrigation purposes.

The extension of time request approved in May, 1988 indicates the fish pond had been stocked with fish. Therefore, recreation storage will also be included under this license. This being the case, diversion to storage should also be included for the recreational storage facility. The examiner has recommended that 1.0 af be licensed for the storage. However, according to his dimensions drawn on his exam, 1.0 af is extreme. The one reservoir simply holds 2,000 gallons. The other pond is 10' X 20' X 1'. The combination of the two come to no more than 0.1 af; this is the amount to be licensed.
