Dear Mr. and Mrs. Laughy:

A Claim to a Water Right is your sworn statement as to the nature and extent of use to which you are putting the public waters of the State of Idaho. Since it is your sworn statement any additions or changes I might make could be construed as falsification of Public Records. I am therefore returning your check No. 92-303 in the amount of $10.00 and your Claim.

If it will aid you in any way, most people apply for 0.01 cfs for each domestic household. The maximum allowable diversion rate, under Idaho Code for irrigation, is 0.02 cfs per acre. I am also including a stock water form to aid you in determining the amounts necessary. The amounts on the form and those mentioned above are merely to be used as guidelines, they may not accurately reflect your uses.

If this office can be of any further assistance, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Gentlemen:

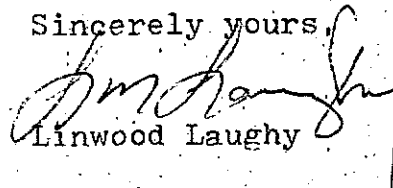

Enclosed find c/claim to a water right. This spring has been utilized for the purposes stated for at least fifty years.

I did not complete the amount section because I did not know what would be appropriate here. The irrigation listed is for a non-commercial orchard and garden, so perhaps this is considered as domestic use. If so, disregard the irrigation section. The spring furnishes water to one household and stock watering for up to 45 head cattle. Please write in the amount of usage that would be normal for these purposes.

Enclosed also find my $10 application fee.

Thankyou.
