Dear Mr. Johnson:

One of the conditions of approval of your water Permit No. New #84-7015 (see last page of your approved permit) was that evidence of the extent of development be submitted as proof of application of water to beneficial use to this office on or before December 1, 1973. Enclosed is an affidavit form which must be used to submit the required proof of beneficial use.

If you have not fully completed your project, and you have not previously received an extension of time, you may request an extension of time provided the delay is for reasonable cause as indicated in Section 42-204, Idaho Code, amended. If you have been prevented from proceeding by a governmental agency or by litigation, more than one extension of time can be granted.

Either the beneficial use affidavit or a request for an extension of time must be received by this Department on or before the above mentioned date, otherwise the permit will lapse and be of no further force or effect.

Dear Sir,

In regards to the app. for Permit, I sent to your office. I followed instructions, I reviewed with the application form, but, evidently, something was wrong.

I understood that 0.50 CFS. was the minimum amount of water and it required a $10.00 fee. However, the form your office completed, looks quite satisfactory and the amount of water adequate. Will it still cost $10.00? I will just enclose the same check and hope this is satisfactory.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter. I remain -

Sincerely,
Robert Johnson

Dear Mr. Johnson:

We are returning your application for permit and Check No. 92-153 in the amount of $10. The check is not sufficient for the amount of water claimed, and the quantity of water exceeds the normal maximums for the uses described.

For your convenience, we have retyped your application and made changes to meet the requirements of your uses. These figures represent the maximum amounts we can accept unless you can show the need for a greater quantity.

If you feel any changes are necessary, or have any additional information which may be helpful, please make the corrections or additions and return the application to our office along with the proper fee, and we shall begin its processing.

If you should have any questions, please contact us.
