RE: Advertising

On June 25, 1979, the Department received a legal advertisement from the Idaho State Journal for applications for permits 29-7492 and 29-7494 and claims to water rights 29-4098, 29-4099, and 29-4100.

This advertisement was entitled "Notice of Applications for Water Rights" and indicated it was for applications, however, it concluded with instructions for filing exceptions on claims, with no mention of a ten day protest period.

Since exceptions can be filed at any time and the information concerning each claim was correct, the claims were not readvertised. However, in order to comply with Section 42-203 of the Idaho Code, it was necessary to readvertise the applications to included notice of the protest period.
