Dear Ms. George:

We are returning your Claims to a Water Right. It has been determined that cattle drinking directly from a stream, does not constitute a point of diversion and therefore we cannot accept your claim for stockwater from the Red River.

We can accept the claim on the unnamed stream for domestic and stock uses, but first you must clarify the place of use, complete the claim in ink and include a $20.00 filing fee.

The places of use are listed as the SNNW and the SWSW, however, the map shows the homes to be in the SESW.

If you have any questions, please contact me at this office.

Sincerely,

TOM D. KING
