Department of Water Resources

Dear Mr. Fowler:

The above-referenced Claim was filed by Mr. Arlie G. Page, alleging that a water right was perfected on a certain spring within the NWSW, Sec. 29, T31N, R5E. He claims that the water was diverted in 1949, by means of a 3/4" gravity-flow pipeline and has since that time been continuously conveyed to the NESE, Sec. 30, T31N, R5E for the purpose of domestic use within a single household.

Your Warranty Deed lists a tract of land within the SENE, Sec. 30, T31N, R5E, so I checked with the Idaho County Assessor and learned that Mr. Page transposed the quarter-quarter designation of the place of use on his Claim. This does not in itself invalidate the Claim of Mr. Page, but it does require that an Amended Claim be filed showing the place of use within the SENE, Sec. 30, T31N, R5E. I have enclosed a copy of the original Claim, an Amended Claim form and instructions for filing. There is no fee for filing, but the Amended Claim must be notarized.

In your letter, you also requested that this Department furnish you with copies of any easements in our files that relate to your recently acquired property. Unfortunately, Mr. Page neglected to file any documents in support of his claim. However, the easements across private land should be on file with the Idaho County Recorder's office. If any of the land is owned by a Governmental Agency (this land is considered to be in the public domain), you would have to contact that specific Agency for easements.

A water right cannot be perfected if the point of diversion is located on land within the public domain, unless the specific Agency controlling that land issues an easement, special use permit or other document granting right-of-way. In the case of private land, verbal permission is all that is necessary unless the water naturally rises to the surface and sinks back into the ground without crossing a property line while on the surface. In this case, the right to trespass and to appropriate the water must be deeded in the same manner as real estate. If there are no easements as outlined above, then the Claim of a Mr. Page is invalid and you must gain right-of-way from the owner of the property and file an Application for Permit with this office to initiate a water right. This office will furnish you with the Application for Permit form upon request.

I hope I have answered your questions concerning your water rights. If not, or if you have any other water-right related questions, please contact me.

Sincerely,

TOM D. KING

We are in receipt of your letter of Feb 6, 1973. Please find enclosed the necessary forms and instructions for the filing of the water right. However, it will also be necessary to obtain an easement to cross the ground to get to the spring, and we have no jurisdiction over that.
