Dear Mr. Carlson:

I wish to protest application for transfer No. 11-1058/etc. filed by Dean Ward of Bloomington and Grant Haddock of Paris, Idaho.

I object to this change in point of diversion for several reasons. First, some of the land described in the application has not been irrigated for the last fifty years, if they ever have been irrigated. Approval of this application would, therefore, result in an expansion of this right.

Second, the change proposed would remove all of the water from the existing channel since the water is used in rotation, I would never get the 26½ inches of water I am entitled to under the decree, thus causing substantial damage to my right.

My third reason for protest is based on the fact that the change in point of diversion has already been accomplished through trespass on the land of another person, I feel that the applicants should have the responsibility of obtaining the necessary easement prior to the construction of their new diversion ditch.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Allred,

I very strongly and vehemently protest the action as per the enclosed clipping. This is in essence a high-handed means of stealing water rights to which Ward and Haddock have absolutely no claim. In the case of Levi H. Long 11-1064 -13 inches May 1, 1883. I hold the deeds and all water rights for this property. I am surprised and shocked that your office would be a party to such action! Don't you do any investigation of ownership before such action? I would suggest your office check to see if such water has not already been illegally diverted.

If you wish to check my claims may I suggest you consult Book 2 of Road Book Miscellaneous pg. 286 and deeds to above property in the Bear Lake County Court House. Please acknowledge this correspondence.

Gentlemen:

It appears that the advertized notice of correction concerning an application for diversion that has previously been advertized on May 26th and June 2, 1977 is for using the water in a new canal. Therefore, I strongly object as there is no water rights in this canal nor is there sufficient water to warrant the use of the canal. Also there is no land that this canal would service that has a water right. There is no easement existing that will permit the construction of such a canal and the ground structure is of such a nature that the water will wash and sub making the loss of water to be too extensive.

PROPOSED
MEMORANDUM DECISION AND ORDER

This matter was first brought to the attention of the Idaho Department of Water Resources on January 3, 1976 when a letter from Mayo Krogue was received objecting to the change in point of diversion on Worm Creek initiated by Dean Ward and Grant Haddock. This change was made without benefit of the requisite transfer approval. Dean Ward was subsequently advised by the Department that it appeared a transfer would be necessary to legally accomplish the changes he and Grant Haddock were making. In response, personnel from the Department were invited to come and review the changes in the field. Based upon the information provided at that time, it was concluded that no changes which would require a transfer were being made. The conversion from surface to sprinkler irrigation does not necessarily represent a change in the associated water rights. However, the irrigation of previously unirrigated land would require a water right permit. Mayo Krogue and Nolan Krogue responded by filing an affidavit stating that for over forty (40) years all of the water users on Worm Creek have diverted their water at the same diversion located within the NW1/4SW1/4, Sec. 34, Twp. 14S, Rge. 43E, B.M. Mr. Krogue further explained that the ditch that would be used to supply the new gravity sprinkler system was a high water ditch that was located on the property of Ardella Peterson and had not been used for years. Based upon the sworn statement of Mayo and Nolan Krogue, Dean Ward was advised that an application for transfer appeared to be appropriate.

Dean Ward and Grant Haddock responded on April 26, 1977 and application for transfer No. 11-1058/etc. was filed with the Department of Water Resources. This application included nineteen rights totaling 2.67 cubic feet per second. Notice of the proposed change was published in the News Examiner in Montpelier, Idaho on May 26 and June 2, 1977. Because of a publication error, a corrected notice was advertised on June 23 and 30, 1977. Protests subsequently were received during the protest period from Ardella Peterson, Mayo Krogue, James E. Payne, and Arlen C. Wilkes.

A conference in the matter was held in the Bear Lake County Courthouse on September 1, 1977. The applicants were present and represented by Jay Kohler, Attorney at Law. Protestant Ardella Peterson was represented by Clyde Nelson, ^{see 11-8-84 letter} Attorney at Law. Protestant Mayo Krogue was represented by Leonard Kingsford, Attorney at Law. All others were without legal counsel. During the informal discussion of the matter several objections emerged.

1) The flow of water in Worm Creek is normally inadequate and has consequently been used in rotation. The protestants held that they would be injured if the applicants are permitted to separate water from the normal rotation.

2) The moving of water to the new point of diversion will cause unreasonable loss to other water users because of the increased time required to resoak the ditch.

3) Applicants plan to use a ditch which crosses Ardella Peterson's (Beck) property without first securing an easement from her.

4) The applicants do not have the necessary possessory interest in the water rights they are attempting to transfer.

5) The transfer will result in an expansion of the use of the original right.

When no agreement to resolve the objections could be reached Attorney Leonard Kingsford requested that a formal hearing be held at a later date. A hearing was scheduled for June 8, 1978. The applicants and protestants had the same legal representation they had at the previous conference. After review of the issues the parties requested an additional continuance to allow time to request a readjudication to determine the water rights on Worm Creek.

Over the next forty-eight (48) months numerous contacts were made by the Department to determine if the parties still intended to initiate a readjudication of Worm Creek. When no adjudication request was received and no apparent interest in pursuing readjudication was evident, the Department scheduled the matter for hearing on September 28, 1982. The applicant Mayo Krogue was represented by Leonard Kingsford, Attorney at Law. The remaining protestants represented themselves except Arlen Wilkes who was not present.

Review of Evidence

The following materials were submitted as evidence in this matter:

1) IDWR file No. 11-1058/etc. application for transfer.

2) Applicant's Exhibit No. 1 - Edward Haddock vs Joseph E. Thornock Judicial Decree.

3) Applicant's Exhibit No. 2 - a general sketch showing ditches, roads, lands of applicants and protestants.

4) Hearing tapes No. 1 through 5.

After reviewing the evidence and testimony presented at this hearing and based upon his understanding of the law, the hearing officer makes the following Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Order.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1) On October 10, 1904, District Judge James M. Stevens decreed the waters of Worm Creek, Bear Lake County, Idaho to thirty-four (34) parties. The rights decreed totalled 373.58 miner's inches, 7.4716 cubic feet per second but were only defined by name, amount, and priority date.

2) In June, 1959, Dean Ward, Grant Haddock, Mayo Krogue and James Payne established the present rotation of Worm Creek water. The rotation usually lasts about one and one-half months during the irrigation season.

3) The ditch which crosses protestant Ardella Peterson's property, labeled No. 5 on applicant's exhibit No. 2, washed out when she was a child but was reconstructed by Utah Power and Light when they constructed a power line through that area. Mrs. Peterson has refused to grant permission to use the ditch through her property.

4) The earliest priority date established by the case of Haddock vs Thornock is May 1, 1868. During the summer months of August and September there is normally only enough water to supply the rights with a priority earlier than 1890. During these periods, a 28-day rotation between the parties perviously named is started with Grant Haddock getting water for five and one-half (5 1/2) days, Mayo Krogue for nine (9) days, Dean Ward for ten and onehalf (10 1/2) days and James Payne three (3) days.

5) The intake structure for a gravity irrigation system was constructed by the applicants in 1976. This structure can be used only when water is conveyed into ditch No. 5 illustrated in applicant's exhibit No. 2.

6) The distance from the diversion into ditch 5 is about one mile above the next downstream diversion.

7) The successors in interest to the water entitlement granted by Judge Stevens in 1904 is not clear because of the vagueness of the decree and the dispute that exists among the parties.

8) Protestant Arlen Wilkes did not appear at the hearing.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1) The decree handed down by the court in the case of Haddock vs Thornock does not contain the elements necessary to define the water rights for the water users on Worm Creek. A watermaster could not be elected and charged with the distribution of waters of Worm Creek without an adjudication to further define the existing water rights.

2) The ownership of the particular rights claimed by the applicants cannot be confirmed without a court adjudication.

3) The continuation of the established rotation is in the local public interest and may have become an element of the respective water rights and therefore, cannot be abandoned or changed without unanimous agreement of the parties.

4) The applicant's have water rights on Worm Creek, and although not clearly defined, are entitled to change the point of diversion and/or place of use of these rights with certain limitations to protect the rights of others.

5) Although the applicant does not have a written easement across another's land, that may be obtained through condemnation or a right-of-way may already exist due to the past use of the ditch.

6) Failure to appear at the hearing is cause for setting aside a protest.

ORDER

IT IS, THEREFORE, HEREBY ORDERED that the protest of Arden Wilkes be set aside for failure to appear and that Application for Transfer No. 2103 of Water Right Nos. 11-1058/1076/1060/1077/1061/1078/1062/1079/1064/1065/1082/1066 /1089/1084/1068/1069/1087/1088/1073 is APPROVED subject to the following conditions:

1) Only those lands which were regularly irrigated prior to 1976 may be irrigated. If other lands are to be irrigated, a water right permit could allow irrigation of these prior to June 5 of each year or the start of the rotation.

2) The established schedule of rotation shall be continued except the applicants shall release the water a sufficient amount of time before the end of the rotation period so the water will reach the point of diversion of the person next in line to use the water at the beginning of their period of use.

3) Approval of this application does not represent a finding of possessory interest in the waters of Worm Creek. The available evidence and testimony indicates that the applicants have beneficially used the waters of Worm Creek. The point of diversion of any rights the applicants possess, as may in the future be confirmed by court action, is hereby changed pursuant to this application for transfer of water right and the limitations herein stated.

4) Approval does not grant access or easement to use the lands of another person.

IN THE MATTER OF APPLICATION FOR TRANSFER NO.
2103 OF WATER RIGHT NOS. 11-1058, ETC.
IN THE NAME OF DEAN WARD AND GRANT HADDOCK

On September 11, 1984, the Department issued and mailed a Proposed Memorandum Decision and Order approving Application for Transfer No. 2103 with conditions that: 1) restrict the applicants to the irrigation of the same land they were irrigating before the transfer, 2) protect the rights that are a part of an existing rotation schedule from injury, 3) limits the Department's action to the approval of the transfer rather than a confirmation of the water rights requested to be transferred, and 4) requires a right-of-way or easement to be obtained by some other means than the approval of the transfer.

On Tuesday, November 13, 1984, with Monday, November 12 being a state holiday, a timely request for a rehearing was received. The request must be rejected since no new evidence was presented that was not available at the time of the hearing. A claim of ownership of the lands of the parties in the Haddock vs Thornock decree would provide additional elements to define the existing water rights but certainly there has been sufficient time during the past five years for the parties to gather that information. There also appears to be a misunderstanding of the decision in that the limitations apply only to the transferred rights and does not limit or confirm the rights of the other parties.

RE: Field Review of Dean Ward's Gravity Sprinkler System
DATE: August 11, 1976

Several weeks ago, Mayo Krogue contacted us at this office and indicated that Dean Ward, Bloomington, Idaho, had changed his point of diversion from Worm Creek, and had installed a gravity sprinkler system. It appeared from the conversation that Mr. Ward needed to make application for transfer to comply with the statutes and properly record the change.

I wrote a letter to Mr. Ward, indicating that an application for transfer might be necessary, and that he should contact this office, which he did on July 21, 1976. I made an appointment to meet with Mr. Ward and review his change for August 10, 1976.

We inspected the entire system on the ground, and I was shown each of the ditches from Worm Creek that supply the several water users. Worm Creek is decreed August 10, 1904, decreed in the case of Edward Haddock -vs- Joseph E. Thornock, et al. The decree was not specific, giving only the number of inches and the priority date of each right. The change Mr. Ward had accomplished did not result in a change in the point of diversion from Worm Creek, but rather transported the water through an existing ditch into the intake for his gravity system. He and two other water users had pooled their water rights and gone together on the system. The flow from Worm Creek apparently diminishes rapidly during the summer months, and the water users have agreed upon a 28-day rotation system, giving the later priority rights water during a longer period than they had otherwise. The rights in the decree go from 1870 to about 1898.

I advised Mr. Ward that, based upon the field inspection, he did not need to make application for transfer, but if he planned on sprinkling portions of his property that had not been previously irrigated, he would need to make application for permit. I left him application forms, and he agreed to submit them when he determined what additional areas he would attempt to irrigate.

Mr. Dean Ward

Dear Mr. Ward:

I appreciated the opportunity to review your Worm Creek system, and the time you spent showing it to me.

As I indicated to you during my visit, it does not appear that there has been a change in the point of diversion involved in your installation of a gravity sprinkler system, since the existing ditches are still being used and no changes have been made in the diversions from Worm Creek.

It was difficult for me to determine exactly what lands had been irrigated in the past, but if you do attempt to irrigate lands that have not previously been irrigated from Worm Creek, it will be necessary to make application for permit to legally effect this expansion in acreage. Your gravity sprinkler system should greatly increase your application efficiency and use of water, and should be a real asset to your Worm Creek system.

If you have any questions in the future, don't hesitate to contact me.

It has been brought to our attention that you recently changed the point of diversion and place of use of water diverted from Worm Creek. If you have made such a change, I recommend that you contact this office at your earliest convenience to prevent jeopardizing your water rights and possibly suffering legal penalties.

Dear Mr. Krogue:

Your January 3rd letter raises several important questions regarding water rights.

A new water right for the use of surface water can only be established by the filing of an application and the issuance of a water right permit. This permit may be granted only if there is sufficient water in the source and if it does not interfere with other existing prior water rights.

A change in an existing water right may be made only after an application for transfer is filed and approved. Again the approval will be granted only if it does not injure another existing water right.

We are forwarding your letter to our regional office in Idaho Falls and perhaps, they will be in your area in the near future to discuss this problem with you.

We hope this information will assist you.

vs.
JOSEPH E. THORNOCK
Defendant

Be it remembered that this cause was commenced by filing the complaint on the thirteenth day of August, 1901, by Edward Haddock, plaintiff, against Joseph E. Thornock; that afterward upon showing duly made to the Court that Peter Greenhalgh, James A. Nelson, E. J. Haddock, D. A. Krogue, Levi H. Long, David A. Nelson, N. P. Rasmussen, Fred Jacobsen, O. C. Dunford, Jacob Welker, Nelson C. Nelson, and James G. Welker, were necessary and proper parties to this action, it was ordered that they be made parties defendant; that afterward to wit; on the 23rd day of June, 1902, all of said parties to this action agreed in writing to and did appoint Alma Findlay, J. A. Hulme, and H. H. Broomhead as Referees, to take the testimony in this case, and submit their findings of fact to the parties in this case and to the Court, and that the decree of this Court be based upon said findings of fact, should be entered as the decree of this Court, in this action with the same force and effect as if the case had been regularly tried before the Court.

That said Referees have filed their report and findings of fact in the Court, which are agreed to by all of said parties, and accepted and approved by this Court, from which said findings of fact, the Court made its conclusions of law, - that each of said parties are entitled to the water as of the amounts and dates specified in said findings of fact.

Ron Carlson,
Dept. of Water Resources,
Eastern District
Idaho Falls, Idaho

Dear Mr. Carlson:

About six weeks ago I called at your office and had some discussion with you concerning the water that comes from the Worm Creek canyon just south of Bloomington.

It appears that there has been a diversion of the water and I have some concern as to the position of the water department in the legality of such a diversion. At the close of our discussion you informed me that you would write to Mr. Dean Ward about the matter and that you would let me know or likely send me a copy of the letter. To date I have not contacted nor discussed this with any one and inasmuch as I have not heard from you I have been wondering if you have made any progress or conclusion about the situation.

Should you be in the Bloomington area in the near future I would appreciate you contacting me. I am at my farm most of the time and will be harvesting soon so it would be well if you could let me know a short time in advance. Just a short letter would be sufficient and also satisfy my thinking for the present. Should there be more information you need please let me know.

I do appreciate your time and interest in this matter and thank you for the same.

Yours truly,

Mayo Krogue

O
Dear Mr. Krogue:

P
This letter is to keep you advised on what has transpired since you contacted this office concerning a change in point of diversion on Worm Creek. After your visit I contacted Mr. Dean Ward, and subsequently inspected the change he had made in his irrigation system by installing gravity sprinklers.

It does not appear from this field inspection that by making this change he did, in fact, change his point of diversion. Since the diversion from Worm Creek has not been changed, it is not necessary for Mr. Ward to make application for transfer. It may, however, result in a change in the amount of water that is diverted from each existing point of diversion from Worm Creek, and thereby could result in additional inconvenience to, or actual interference with the water rights of other water users on Worm Creek. If this occurs, it may be necessary for the water users to form a water district, and elect a watermaster to see that all water rights are delivered according to the decree.

I apologize for not contacting you sooner concerning my correspondence with Dean Ward. I again thank you for your letter of August 24, 1976, reminding me that I had not written to you as I had previously agreed to do. If you have additional questions in this matter, please feel free to contact me.

Very truly yours,

IN THE MATTER OF:)

DEAN WARD AND GRANT HADDOCK) CHANGE IN POINT OF DIVERSION)
ON WORM CREEK)

AFFIDAVIT

State of Idaho)

County of Bonneville)

NOLAN KROGUE AND MAYO KROGUE

being first duly sworn, deposes and says: In May of 1976, Dean Ward and Grant Haddock changed their point of diversion on Worm Creek from NW $\frac{1}{4}$ SW $\frac{1}{4}$, Sec. 34, T. 14S, R. 43E to a diversion upstream located within NE $\frac{1}{4}$ NE $\frac{1}{4}$, Sec. 4, T. 15S, R. 43E, B.M., Bear Lake County.

All of the water users on Worm Creek have diverted their water at the same diversion point (NW $\frac{1}{4}$ SW $\frac{1}{4}$, Sec. 34) for over 40 years. The change Ward and Haddock have made has caused the remaining users to not have adequate water for two irrigations.

We feel that Dean Ward and Grant Haddock have not complied with Sec. 42-222, Idaho Code, since no application for transfer has been made to the Idaho Department of Water Resources.

We believe that by not complying with the Idaho Statutes we have been denied our administrative process and will be forced into legal recourse.

Dear Mr. Ward:

As you recall, in early August I met with you and Mr. Haddock to review the change represented by the installation of your gravity sprinkler system. At that time you told me that no change in the point of diversion had taken place, but rather you had installed the intake for your gravity system at the end of an existing ditch.

Since that time we have been contacted on two different occasions by Mayo and Nolan Krogue and they inform us that the upper ditch through which you will divert water for your gravity system was abandoned many years ago. I am enclosing a copy of an affidavit they submitted for your review.

In view of their sworn statement, it appears that you must make application for transfer to comply with Sec. 42-222 of the Idaho Code. For your convenience, I have included an application for transfer but would be happy to assist you in completing this application at our Idaho Falls Office, or possibly if you wished we could schedule to meet with you if someone from this office is in the area in the near future.

If you have any questions in this matter, please feel free to contact me.

Dear Mr. Krogue:

In October of 1976, after your visit to this office, we sent a letter and a copy of your affidavit to Mr. Dean Ward of Bloomington, Idaho. We indicated to Mr. Ward that based upon your affidavit it appeared that it would be appropriate for him to make an application for transfer. We have not received any reply from Mr. Ward at this time.

Because of the ambiguousness of the decree, it may be necessary for the water users from Worm Creek to request the district court and the Department of Water Resources to make a general readjudication of the Worm Creek water rights.

If Mr. Ward chooses to make application for transfer we will certainly advise you.

Very truly yours,

The Department has set the matter of protests for conference and/or hearing for Thursday, September 1, 1977, at 9:00 a.m., in the Courtroom of the Bear Lake County Courthouse, Paris, Idaho. Ronald D. Carlson, Supervisor.

Dear Mr. Carlson:

Last October 6th. I was in your office and spent some time with you regarding the water diversion that has been made in the water at Worm Creek. If you will recall we formulated an affidavit that was sent to Mr. Dean Ward stating that he had not complied with Sec. 42-222, Idaho Code requiring that an application be made to the water resources department before a diversion of water can be made.

The purpose of this letter is to bring myself up to date on the matter and to learn if there is anything that need be done to resolve the problem before the busy spring season starts. Perhaps it would be well to have, if possible, some solution that would be satisfactory to all concerned before the irrigation season starts. With the weather such as it has been for the past few months it appears that we will be real short of water in 1977.

During our conversation you mentioned that you would send the affidavit and a letter to Mr. Ward. I have't heard anything and I was wondering if the information that you sent to Mr. Ward at that time would be such as to enable me to conclude as to the status of the water of Worm Creek, thereby, I would be able to determine if anything need be done at this time or if it would be best to wait until Mr. Ward and Mr. Haddock have made an application for transfer.

I would appreciate very much hearing from you soon and should there be any copies of material or suggestions that you may have I will be most happy to receive them.

I do appreciate very much your time and your past services. I trust you have more snow than we have here and also that you have a happy, successful 1977.

Yours truly,

Mayo Kroque

RE: Dean Ward and Grant Haddock

On June 8, 1978 Ernie Carlsen and I prepared to hold a hearing in the matter of protest filed against Application for Transfer No. 11-1058/etc.

Prior to taking formal testimony and evidence I attempted to determine what the issues were that would be heard. Leonard Kingsford, Attorney for Mayo Krogue, indicated that his client was concerned primarily about injury this transfer would cause to other water rights and that it was an expansion of the water right. Clyde Nelson, Attorney for Ardella Beck, indicated he felt there would be injury to other water rights, that it was an expansion of the water right and that the applicant could not show ownership of the rights they wished to transfer. (Mrs. Beck's main objection stems from the fact that the new diversion involves the reopening of a ditch across her property for which she feels the applicants have no easement.)

After further discussion with all parties involved it became apparent that the ownership of these rights was an insurmountable problem due to the vagueness of the decree. All parties agreed to request readjudication of the rights and asked the Department to take no further action on this application until a decision from the court had been made.

IN THE MATTER OF APPLICATION FOR TRANSFER)
NO. 2103 OF WATER RIGHT NOS. 11-1058, ETC.)
IN THE NAME OF DEAN WARD AND GRANT HADDOCK)

PETITION FOR REHEARING

COMES NOW, the protestant, ARDELLA PETERSON (BECK) and files her petition for rehearing in the above entitled matter for the reasons alleged hereinafter:

1) The Findings of Fact set forth in paragraph 2:

In June, 1959, Dean Ward, Grant Haddock, Mayor Krogue and James Payne established the present rotation of Worm Creek water. The rotation usually lasts about one and one-half months during the irrigation season.

is unsupported by the evidence offered at said hearing.

2) That the Findings of Fact set forth in paragraph 3:

The ditch which crosses protestant Ardella Peterson's property, labeled No. 5 on applicant's exhibit No. 2, washed out when she was a child but was reconstructed by Utah Power and Light when they constructed a power line through that area. Mrs. Peterson has refused to grant permission to use the ditch through her property.

is deficient in that the hearing officer failed to establish when the ditch was reconstructed by Utah Power and Light and at whose request and cost the ditch was reconstructed.

3) That the Findings of Fact set forth in paragraph 4:

The earliest priority date established by the case of Haddock vs. Thornock is May 1, 1868. During the summer months of August and September there is normally only enough water to supply the rights with a priority earlier than 1890. During these periods, a 28-day rotation between the parties previously named is started with Grant Haddock getting water for five and one-half (5 1/2) days, Mayo Krogue for nine (9) days, Dean Ward for ten and onehalf (10 1/2) days and James Payne three (3) days.

are unsubstantiated by the evidence at the hearing.

4) That the Findings of Fact set forth in paragraph 7:

The successors in interest to the water entitlement granted by Judge Stevens in 1904 is not clear because of the vagueness of the decree and the dispute that exists among the parties.

are unsupported for the reason that the successors in interest may be established by additional evidence or by a title search of the respective water rights associated therewith and running with the land.

5) That the protestant takes exception to the Conclusions of Law, paragraph 1:

The decree handed down by the court in the case of Haddock vs. Thornock does not contain the elements necessary to define the water rights for the water users on Worm Creek. A watermaster could not be elected and charged with the distribution of waters of Worm Creek without an adjudication to further define the existing water rights.

in that the decree does contain elements necessary to define the water rights for water users on Worm Creek. It does not, however, identify the successors in interest from the time the decree was handed down, but said matters of successor in interest would be a matter of proof upon searching of titles and such other evidentiary matters as may be considered by the hearing officer.

6) That the protestant takes exception to Conclusions of Law, paragraph 3:

The continuation of the established rotation is in the local public interest and may have become an element of the respective water rights and therefore, cannot be abandoned or changed without unanimous agreement of the parties.

is erroneous and not supported by law or the facts in that the hearing officer concluded under paragraph 2 that the ownership of the particular rights claimed by the applicant cannot be confirmed and yet, under paragraph 3, the hearing officer established the water rights based upon an established rotation and not based upon the successors in interest to said decreed water rights. If the particular water rights cannot be confirmed, then the hearing officer cannot conclude as a matter of law or fact that the present rotation cannot be abandoned or changed without the unanimous agreement of the parties. Confirmation of the present rotation is in derogation of the decreed water rights in Worm Creek. As a matter of law, the hearing officer has concluded that the ownership of a particular right claimed by the applicant cannot be confirmed and that the successors in interest to the decreed water rights is not set forth with particularity. The hearing officer cannot conclude that the applicants have water rights in Worm Creek, the same being inconsistent with the previous Findings of Facts and Conclusions of Law.

7) That the issue of water rights was not before the hearing officer, but only the matter of transfer was under consideration. The protestant did not have sufficient opportunity to formulate objections to the actual existence of any water rights other than those water rights that may have been decreed or established by a court of competent jurisdiction or upon the appropriate application to the Department of Water Resources.

8) The Order and Conclusions of Law are contrary to the Findings of Fact. In particular, Conclusion of Law, paragraph 3, says that this application does not represent a finding of possessory interest. Yet, the hearing officer concluded that nobody could use the water rights without unanimous agreement of the parties involved in the rotation then only those lands which were regularly irrigated prior to 1976 may be irrigated. If other lands are to be irrigated, a water permit could allow irrigation of other lands prior to June 5th of each year.

9) The hearing officer failed to consider the information supplied by Ardella Peterson (Beck); that is, that she had applied for water rights and that said water rights were duly granted without protest from any of the parties. The application for water rights of Ardella Peterson (Beck) were summarily dismissed by the hearing officer (se Exhibit "A" attached hereto) and were not considered in any of the Findings of Fact or Conclusions of Law. The Findings of Fact, Order and Conclusions of Law ignore the existing water applications and grant of that application by the Water Resources Board.

10) The only matter before the hearing officer was the matter of transfer. Therefore, the correct Conclusion of Law would be that the transfer may take place if it does not derogate from, interfere with or injure other water rights. No conclusions should have been drawn as to the priority of the present rotation or that the present rotation is to the total exclusion of other users and holders of the water rights in Worm Creek. The hearing officer did not have an application for water rights but simply an application for transfer. Therefore, no conclusions or evidence should have been received as to whether or not any water rights exist, but only as to whether or not a transfer could take place.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 7th day of November, 1984.
