Dear Mr. Thornock:

The Department of Reclamation is processing your claim to a water right. However, before we can continue with the advertising of your claim, it is necessary for you to supply the date of priority for the water you are claiming under this document.

You have listed that you are claiming all the water in the creek at this point of diversion. However, the department will need the month, day, and year or separate months, days, and years for each priority you are claiming and the amount of water claimed under each priority.

Please reply promptly so that we may process your claim. Enclosed is a copy of the first page of the claim.
