Dear Mr. Keetch & Ms. McLain:

We are in receipt of the correspondence concerning the above referenced water right.

The recorded ownership of the right will not be changed in the Department's computer records, since the water right involved is a claimed right. A claimed water right is considered real property and is acquired when the property to which it is appurtenant is purchased. Proof of owning the land is proof of owning the water right claim, if the previous land owner did not exclude the water right from the sale.

I have placed a copy of the correspondence in the water right file for future reference only and no other action will be taken.

If you have any questions, please let us know.

Sincerely,

JIM JOHNSON
