Dear Mr. Corbridge:

We previously returned to you two retyped claims indicating changes you wished to have made. To date, we have not received these signed, retyped claims. As initial processing of your claims has been completed, it is important that you submit the corrected claims. No further administrative action can be taken in this matter until the Department is in receipt of the requested claims.

Your immediate attention to this matter is greatly appreciated.

Dear Mr. Corbridge:

Once again we find it necessary to return the claim forms. It is now our understanding that you wish to use one claim for domestic and one claim for stockwater. We have taken the liberty of retyping the claims showing the uses separately.

Please review the claims and sign in the presence of a notary if they appear to be in order. Should you find the claims do not reflect what you wish to claim, please complete the two additional claims indicating what you intend.

We apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Corbridge:

The Department of Water Resources has completed the processing of your amended claims to water rights and no further action is authorized under Sections 42-225a and 42-225b, Idaho Code. Your claims will be retained in our files and will be available at any time for use by you or the court.

As you are aware, the filing of your amended claims does not, in itself, guarantee you a water right; it only records and preserves the information and the evidence which you included in your claims.

If, at a later date, you find that you have additional information or supporting evidence that you would like to have included in your amended claim file, you may have that information or evidence added at any time. Please refer to your claim numbers when corresponding with this office.

We are enclosing, for your records, a copy of your amended claims. If you have any questions or if we can be of further assistance, please feel free to call upon us.
