Hi Rick,

Thanks again for your call today. I have attached a copy of the claim you submitted, as well as an amended claim based on the new shapes for your POD and POU. Your point of diversion (pump location) was moved on the map, but the legal description stayed the same, so nothing changed on paper. Please remember to return the signed claim form to our office as soon as possible.

I went ahead and attached the permit application along with the instructions just in case, but I know you said you preferred to file online. Please let us know if you have any other questions.

Thank you,

Greg Cooksey
