ISSUANCE OF LICENSE

Dear Water Right Holder(s):

The Department of Water Resources ("Department") has issued the enclosed Water Right License confirming that a water right has been established in accordance with your permit. Please be sure to thoroughly review all the conditions of approval listed on your license. The conditions may include ongoing requirements, such as maintenance of a measuring device or implementation of mitigation, as well as information about how your water use may be administered, such as regulation by a watermaster in a water district.

The license is a PRELIMINARY ORDER issued by the Department pursuant to Rule 730 of the Department's Rules of Procedure (IDAPA 37.01.01.730). It can and will become a final order without further action by the Department unless a party petitions for reconsideration, files exceptions, or requests a hearing as described in the enclosed information sheet.

Also, please note that water right owners are required to report any change of water right ownership and/or mailing address to the Department within 120 days of the change. Water right forms are available from any office of the Department or on the Department's website at idwr.idaho.gov

H. NARRATIVE/REMARKS/COMMENTS

Prior to processing the license, I spoke with the permit holder (Ryan Haskins) on phone calls April 20th & 21st, 2023, regarding the stock water, domestic system, and legal description of the home at the place of use (POU). Ryan Haskins explained that the legal description was changed when they came into the IDWR office for guidance (the "D" in the NESE was clearly whited-out on the application). I explained that I was having difficulty identifying the stock water trough/tank and the domestic water holding tank at the POU. The permit holder (Ryan Haskins) was able to confirm that the stock water trough was located between the cistern and pond, both north of the home. Ryan explained that the trough/tank was beside the cistern for a couple of years but was moved to a different location it was needed in the recent past. Ryan was able to confirm that the structure located southwest and upslope of the home, is the domestic water tank (see figure 1.1). A pipeline was installed from the cistern to the domestic tank via buried lines. A float switch at the domestic tank turns on the pump located at the now buried cistern to fill the domestic tank as needed. Water from the domestic tank is then gravity fed to the home via a buried pipeline, for use in the home.

I mailed the Haskins a permit amendment to add the domestic site in the NESE quarter-quarter (see figure 1.1). I requested that they sign it and mail it with the fee payment to our address with attention to me. The source on the permit is listed as "Springs Tributary: Sinks". The name of the source for the amendment and license has been changed to "Spring", as this is standard and "Springs" is a clerical error. This does not actually change the source. The applicant called back on May 5th, 2023, and stated that they have received the amendment and are signing and returning it today. The applicant asked that we make sure the up to ½ acre of irrigation is included on the license for the lawn and landscaping around the home. The signed amended permit and fee payment were received by IDWR on May 10th, 2023, and processing of the licensure resumed.

This permit for domestic use and stock water diverted from spring water in Water District (WD) 65 qualifies for an in-office exam. The home and water tank locations were confirmed during a phone conversation with the permit holder and using Google Earth and GIS imagery (see Figures 1 & 1.1). As the source is a spring-sink it is not administered by the water district.

According to IDAPA 37-Rule 35.01.J.viii, spring surface water is exempt from volume reporting requirements. The permit did not clarify if domestic use included or excluded any irrigation. However, as there is no change to the elements on the license with or without the domestic use irrigation it is appropriate to allow the domestic use beneficial use suffice as defined by section 42-230(d).

Administrative Memos #3 & #22 were used to determine the appropriate rate of flow for stock water and domestic uses, respectively on the license. I am recommending a rate of 0.03cfs for stock water and 0.04cfs for domestic use in 1 home with up to ½ acre of irrigation on the license.

I am recommending the license be issued with conditions X01 and 103.
