The Trustee shall pay to or apply for the benefit of beneficiary, such sums out of the income or principal of this trust as the Trustee, in the Trustee's sole discretion, considers necessary or appropriate for said Beneficiary's special needs. As used herein, "special needs" refers to the requisites for maintaining said Beneficiary's good health, safety and welfare when, in the discretion of the Trustee, such requisites are not being provided by any public agency, office or department of any state, or the United States. "Special needs" shall include, but not be limited to, medical and dental expenses, clothing and equipment, programs of training, education and treatment, residential care, transportation and essential dietary needs. "Special needs" shall also include, but not be limited to, spending money (i.e., money to purchase appropriate gifts for relatives and friends), small visual and/or audio equipment for entertainment purposes (i.e., radio, record player, television set), vacations, movies and trips; provided, however, that the Trustee is under no obligation to expend principal or income for such needs, but if the Trustee, in its discretion, decides to do so, in no case shall the Trustee pay or reimburse any amounts to the Federal or State Governments, or any subdivision thereof.

(2) DUTY TO SEEK SUPPORT. It shall be the duty of Trustee herein, that because beneficiary is disabled and unable to maintain and support self independently, the Trustee shall, in the exercise of best judgment and fiduciary duty, seek support and maintenance for said beneficiary from all available public resources, including, but not limited to, Social Security Administration benefits, Veterans Administration benefits, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), U.S. Civil Service Commission benefits, state medical benefits, Medicaid, Federal Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI), Railroad Retirement and Survivorship Benefits; and in that regard, the Trustee shall collect, expend and account for separately all such governmental assistance benefits, but not commingle them with these trust funds. In addition, in making distributions to the Beneficiary for his or her special needs, as herein defined, the Trustee shall take into consideration the applicable resource limitations of the public assistance programs for which the Beneficiary is eligible.

(3) UNDISTRIBUTED INCOME. Any net income not distributed by the Trustee shall be accumulated and added to principal.

(4) NON-PRODUCTIVE PROPERTY. The Trustee may invest in and hold property which is used as the principal residence, furniture, automobile, and other items meeting the "special needs" of the Beneficiary despite the fact that such property is non-productive of income. Other non-productive property may also be held by the Trustee; provided, however, the Beneficiary shall have the power to require the Trustee to convert such other non-productive property into productive property. This power shall be exercised by the Beneficiary in a written instrument delivered to the Trustee.

(5) RESTRICTION ON CORPUS. It is further my intention that no part of the corpus of the trust created herein shall be used to supplant or replace public assistance benefits of any state or federal agency which has a legal responsibility to serve persons with disabilities which are the same or similar to the impairments of the Beneficiary herein.

(6) RESTRAINT ON ALIENATION. No interest in the principal or income of this trust shall be anticipated, assigned or encumbered, or shall be subject to any creditor's claim or to legal process, prior to its actual receipt by the Beneficiary. (1) EXPENDITURES FOR SPECIAL NEEDS. The Trustee shall pay to or apply for the benefit of beneficiary, such sums out of the income or principal of this trust as the Trustee, in the Trustee's sole discretion, considers necessary or appropriate for said Beneficiary's special needs. As used herein, "special needs" refers to the requisites for maintaining said Beneficiary's good health, safety and welfare when, in the discretion of the Trustee, such requisites are not being provided by any public agency, office or department of any state, or the United States. "Special needs" shall include, but not be limited to, medical and dental expenses, clothing and equipment, programs of training, education and treatment, residential care, transportation and essential dietary needs. (2) DUTY TO SEEK SUPPORT. It shall be the duty of Trustee herein, that because beneficiary is disabled and unable to maintain and support self independently, the Trustee shall, in the exercise of best judgment and fiduciary duty, seek support and maintenance for said beneficiary from all available public resources, including, but not limited to, Social Security Administration benefits, Veterans Administration benefits, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), U.S. Civil Service Commission benefits, state medical benefits, Medicaid, Federal Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI), Railroad Retirement and Survivorship Benefits; and in that regard, the Trustee shall collect, expend and account for separately all such governmental assistance benefits, but not commingle them with these trust funds. In addition, in making distributions to the Beneficiary for his or her special needs, as herein defined, the Trustee shall take into consideration the applicable resource limitations of the public assistance programs for which the Beneficiary is eligible.

(3) UNDISTRIBUTED INCOME. Any net income not distributed by the Trustee shall be accumulated and added to principal.

(4) NON-PRODUCTIVE PROPERTY. The Trustee may invest in and hold property which is used as the principal residence, furniture, automobile, and other items meeting the "special needs" of the Beneficiary despite the fact that such property is non-productive of income. Other

This power shall be exercised by the Beneficiary in a written instrument delivered to the Trustee.

(5) RESTRICTION ON CORPUS. It is further my intention that no part of the corpus of the trust created herein shall be used to supplant or replace public assistance benefits of any state or federal agency which has a legal responsibility to serve persons with disabilities which are the same or similar to the impairments of the Beneficiary herein.

(6) RESTRAINT ON ALIENATION. No interest in the principal or income of this trust shall be anticipated, assigned or encumbered, or shall be subject to any creditor's claim or to legal process, prior to its actual receipt by the Beneficiary. Furthermore, I declare that it is my intent, as expressed herein, that because this trust is to be conserved and maintained for the special needs of beneficiary, no part of the corpus thereof, neither principal nor undistributed income, shall be subject to the claims of voluntary or involuntary creditors for the provisions of care and services, including residential care, by any public entity, office, department or agency of any state, or of the United States.

(7) PROVISIONS ON TERMINATION. In the event that it is determined, by either a Court or an authority of competent jurisdiction, that this trust renders beneficiary ineligible to receive any governmental assistance benefits to which she would otherwise be entitled, or if the Trustee, in her discretion, determines that, notwithstanding any other provisions set forth herein, this trust may be subject to garnishment, attachment, execution or bankruptcy proceedings by a creditor of said beneficiary or by the federal or state government, or any agency or subdivision thereof, then the Trustee shall terminate this trust and distribute the remaining principal and accrued income, as provided in paragraph I., below.

(8) PAYMENT OF DEATH EXPENSES. Upon the death of beneficiary, the Trustee, in the Trustee's discretion, may pay all or a portion of any one or more of the expenses of beneficiary's last illness, funeral, burial, administration, probate and taxes, if the Trustee shall determine that it is impossible or impracticable for beneficiary's estate to do so and that no other provisions for such payment thereof have been made.

(9) FINAL DISTRIBUTION. Upon the death of beneficiary the undistributed balance of her trust shall thereupon be distributed, free of trust, as follows: 10% of the residuary trust estate shall be distributed to my granddaughter Danette Polejewski and 10% of the residuary trust estate shall be distributed to my grandson Chaz Christensen. The remainder of the trust estate shall be distributed equally to Travene Rose Armstrong, Sally Rose Hill, Dusty Rose, Janette Paul, Diane Crawford, and James Alan Crawford, or the survivor of them.

appoint Sally Rose Hill as Successor Trustee in the event Travene is unable or unwilling to serve as Trustee. It is my desire that the Trustee shall serve without bond, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

4. Spendthrift Clause. No beneficiary under my Will shall have power to pledge, assign, mortgage, sell or in any manner transfer or hypothecate any interest which such beneficiary may have or may expect to have in any income or principal; nor shall any beneficiary have any power in any manner to anticipate, charge or encumber his or her interest, whether in income or in principal; nor shall such interest of any beneficiary be liable or subject in any manner while in the possession of the Personal Representative for the debts, contracts, liabilities, engagements, obligations or torts of such beneficiary, in favor of any person, including creditors, betrothed, spouses and ex-spouses. 5. Perpetuities Savings Clause. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Will, any trust established under this Article VII. shall terminate, if it has not previously terminated, 21 years after the death of the last survivor of such beneficiaries under this Will who are living at the date of my death. Upon such termination, all property then comprising such trust shall be distributed by representation to those persons who, in the discretion of my trustee, are then eligible to receive distribution of income from such trust.

Dear Water Right Holder(s):

The Department of Water Resources (Department) acknowledges the receipt of correspondence changing ownership of the above referenced water right(s) to you. The Department has modified its records and has enclosed a computer-generated report for you.

Updating the ownership record for a water right does not reconfirm the validity of the right. When processing a Notice of Change in Water Right Ownership, the Department does not review the history of water use to determine if the right has been forfeited or deliberately abandoned through five years or more of non-use. To read more about water right forfeiture, including how to protect a water right from forfeiture, please see Idaho Code §§ 42-222 and 42-223.

Please note, water right owners are required to report any change of water right ownership and any change of mailing address to the Department within 120 days of the change. Reporting forms are available from any office of the Department, or from the Department's website.

If you have any questions concerning the enclosed information, please contact me at (208) 497-3787.

Sincerely,

Jonie Baily
