Comments:

- 1 mvanbussum 4/23/2007 Not a Late Claim
Claim was received in January 2006 but priority date and basis fields were blank. Claimant completed those fields in office today. No motion to file needed.
- 2 mvanbussum 4/24/2007 Use
There are multiple ditches off of Mann Creek. While it appears like this was claimed as instream stockwater, ditches are conveyances off natural system, so instream stock from Mann Creek does not apply. Recommended as standard de minimus claim.
- 3 mvanbussum 4/24/2007 Mann Creek
All of this land is covered under the Mann Creek decree. Irrigation claims were filed based on decreed rights. The Mann Creek decree (Jefferson v. Higgenbotham) did cover stockwater, but stockwater was not claimed with the irrigation. The intent of this stockwater claim was to cover the stockwater rights from the Mann Creek decree. There is evidence of historical beneficial use from the Mann Creek decree.
