Hi Lisa,

Thanks for taking the time on the phone with me today. I'll try to recap everything for your records, and let you know what your next steps are right now.

I went ahead and prepared the second claim we talked about on the phone today. This new claim number is 97-9782, and it includes only the domestic use of a well on the claim. Based on our conversation I can accurately use the correct location of the well that you used on your initial claim. I used the structure just on the other side of the river from the well as the location for your residence. This is the structure that your initial claim indicated was the Place of Use (POU) for the well. This new claim I prepared is partially completed. Please review this claim for accuracy, and make sure it represents what you wanted to claim on your well only. If you need to make any changes, you can either contact me or just sign and initial any changes you write on the claim form. This claim does have a fee of $25.00. Please sign the claim and return it to my office at the address below as soon as possible, and write "Attn: Greg Cooksey" on the address. The check can be made out to IDWR.

Next, I am attaching an amended copy of your maps regarding your initial claim, 97-8930. This map shows a yellow cross-hatch shape that indicates the shape you drew on the online claim showing where you irrigate on the property. The red cross-hatch shape to the northeast is the shape I drew that is where I placed the ½ acre of irrigation from the river based on where you told me the dry spot was between the barn and the river. Please indicate on this map if you are actually irrigating on one or both of these shapes. If neither shape is accurate, please clearly indicate where you are irrigating as accurately as possible by drawing on the map. Then return this map to me when you mail in your claim for the well (or just e-mail the map back but send the claim & check via postal mail) so that I can help you amend the irrigation claim as needed.

Lastly, I have attached a copy of IDWR's Notice of Change of Ownership for your irrigation water right. This form will allow us to change the ownership of the water right into the name of your trust. Please include the map I have prepared for you as well as a copy of the quit claim or warrantee deed showing the trust as the property owner, and complete the ownership change document with signature. Include this to us in the postal mailing that you send your claim in. As a reminder, there are no additional fees required for the ownership change because of the current status of your claim.

Once I receive the signed claim for the use of your well (97-9782), your change of ownership paperwork, and the map of your property showing where your irrigation is taking place, I can move forward with these claims. I will be able to amend the irrigation claim as appropriate, and then let you know what, if any, additional evidence we still need to include with the claim.

Please don't hesitate to reach out if you have any questions. I would be happy to help.

Regards,

Greg Cooksey
