Attachments: 97-8930 AMENDED CLAIM.pdf

Good Morning Lisa,

I wanted to give you a heads up that my front desk let me know that we received the paperwork you mailed in yesterday; however, the numerical value on the check was left blank. Unfortunately, they had to return it to you for correction. Before they mailed it back to you, I took a look through the paperwork that was enclosed in your letter. Everything seems to be on track, but I didn't see the signed amended claim for 97-8930. I know it was last minute when I e-mailed the amended claim to you. I had just received clarification from you, and you also indicated that you were going to send us a letter the same day with all of the paperwork we received, so I tried to get that amendment to you as quickly as I could. I have re-attached that amended claim to this e-mail in case you are having trouble finding it. Just to re-cap, we need to receive the following documents from you:

- Signed Claim 97-9782 (for domestic use of your well only) – this is the claim that the $25.00 fee is paying for, as you have already paid the fee for your other claim, we are just modifying the other claim
- Signed Amended Claim 97-8930 (attached)
- Change of ownership paperwork completed
- Map that you indicated the place of use and the point of diversion on (the one you included but we had to return to you yesterday)
- Corrected check for $25.00 made out to IDWR (the amount was written out, but the numerical portion in the box was incomplete)

You should be receiving these returned documents in the mail shortly. Thank you for being so persistent in working with us so that we can recommend your claim to the court as accurately as possible.

Best Regards,

Greg Cooksey
