Good afternoon Mr. Hawley,

A filing fee is required for each water right claim filed, and no fee is charged for amending a claim (provided the uses are not expanded). There is no charge for amending your original claim, but the additional claims you are filing represent brand new claims – not amendments. Those new claims cannot be accepted by the department unless the appropriate filing fees are submitted for each of them.

If filing for de minimis domestic use (less than 13,000 GPD), then the required filing fee is $25.00 per claim. Please mail a check for those fees along with the claims you intend to submit. If those claims have already been mailed, you can mail the check separately, but will want to include a note that the payment is for those previously sent Notices of Claim. Alternatively, you are welcome to come into our office in Coeur d'Alene and pay in person.

Best Regards,

Evan

Hi Evan,

We mailed the hard copies of our amended claims to you on 4/15/24. We included three affidavits that validate the claims.

You stated that there is a $25 fee for new claims and that there is no charge for amended claims.

We originally had 4 claims in one claim form. Our amendment splits this claim into 4 amended claims. .

I was not sure if we had to pay $25 for these amended claims or if they are covered under the original fee, so I did not include payment.

If we need to pay additional fees, please let us know what is the best way to make payment.

Hope all is well with you. Let us know if you need anything else to process the claims.

Thanks,
John Hawley

Good morning,

Those claim forms have been completely filled out and will be acceptable by the department. Please mail the signed original claims along with any supporting evidence to our office with the appropriate filing fees ($25.00 per new claim, no charge for amended claim). We will contact you in the future if further evidence and/or a field examination is needed.

Thank you,

~Evan
