Good Morning-

Today I will submit to advertising a transfer which proposes to change a POD on Trail Creek near Ketchum for two water rights and add the same POD on Trail Creek for two other water rights. The new POD will be located downstream from the current POD and the water will be pumped directly from the creek instead of flowing for a long distance in a ditch. This application should be scanned into the Laserfiche Temporary location on the N drive in a few days. Let me know if you have any questions.

FEE MEMORANDUM

Date: June 21, 2024
To: Douglas J. Bradshaw Under Will of Eleanor Reinheimer, Transfer #88961 File
From: Jim Bitzenburg
Re: Receipting/disposition of fees paid

This transfer was filed on May 9, 2024, with a fee of $820.00 (Brockway Engineering, check #17987, IDWR receipt #S040213), which matched the stated amount of water being transferred of 4.8 cfs. This flow rate did not match the flow rate of all the rights in the transfer, 26.532 cfs, which equates to a fee of $2300.00. The difference of $1480.00 was paid on June 17, 2024, by Brockway Engineering with check #18062. The IDWR receipt number is C118483

Subject: RE: Point of Diversion Transfer for Douglas J Bradshaw Trustee Under Will of Eleanor Reinheimer

Chuck-

Thank you for sending over the materials pertaining to the Bradshaw/Reinheimer transfer last week. We still have the issue of the total amount of water being transferred (page 1, item #4). It appears that quantity should be 26.532 cfs (additive total of all the rights in the transfer) and this should be the flow rate amount on which the fee should be based, which would necessitate a fee of $2300.00 instead of the $820.00 submitted. If the flow rate associated with the shares in the Upper Wood River Water Users Association, Inc. could be limited in a condition to a lesser amount at the new point of diversion, then the total amount of water being transferred, and the accompanying fee, could be reduced. We would need something in writing from the Upper Wood River Water Users Association, Inc. agreeing to adding such a condition to their rights. If the amount of water being transferred increases (it will have to) then we'll need an amended transfer application with a new signature, and more fees. Thank you,

Jim

ELEVENTH:

A. I direct that if my disinterested Trustees are permitted pursuant to the provisions of this Will to make any determination of whether or not any income from and/or principal of the Trust shall be paid or applied, in making such determination, my disinterested Trustees shall consider only the interest of the Beneficiary for whom such payment or application shall be made, and shall not consider the interest of any other person at any time entitled to receive the principal of such Trust including any other Beneficiary. The foregoing direction shall not be construed to limit in any manner any absolute discretion granted to my disinterested Trustees to determine whether any such payment or application shall be made, whether or not any such Beneficiary shall have any other resources and whether or not any such payment or application may have the effect of terminating such Trust. I also direct that each such determination made by my disinterested Trustees shall be binding upon each Beneficiary and upon all such other persons, and that my disinterested Trustees shall not be under any liability to any Beneficiary or such persons either for failing to make or making any such determination.

B. I authorize my Executors to distribute to the respective devisees and legatees hereunder, including my Trustees, and I authorize my Trustees to accept and to continue to hold as principal of the Trust, any or all property, real and/or personal, tangible and/or intangible, held by my Executors at the time of such distribution. I authorize my Trustees, upon the termination or earlier distribution, in whole or in part, of the Trust, to make the payment and distribution of the principal thereof, in such property, real and/or personal, tangible and/or intangible, then held as such principal as my Trustees in their sole and absolute discretion shall determine. To the extent permitted by law, each such distribution by my Executors and my Trustees shall be binding upon all persons interested in my estate and/or in the Trust.

TWELFTH:

A. I authorize my Executors and my Trustees, in the disposition of my estate and of the income from the principal of the Trust, if and to the extent that my Executors or my Trustees in their sole and absolute discretion shall so determine, in applying any such income or any such principal to the care, maintenance, support and otherwise, for the benefit of any Beneficiary hereunder to have, and more particularly my disinterested Trustees' sole and absolute discretion to determine the extent to which such payment shall be made

B. Notwithstanding any direction in this Will to distribute any portion of my estate or of the principal of the Trust to any infant, I authorize my Executors or my Trustees (as the case may be) to retain custody thereof, or any part thereof, and all or any of the income therefrom, until such infant shall attain his or her majority, and with respect thereto, to exercise all of the powers, and to have all of the privileges and immunities granted in this Will, and also at any time and from time to time, if and to the extent that my Executors or my Trustees in their sole and absolute discretion shall so determine, to pay to and/or apply to the care, education, maintenance and support and otherwise for the benefit of such infant all or any part of any such property the custody of which is so retained and/or any such income therefrom then held by my Executors or my Trustees, but I specifically direct that the interest of such infant in all property the custody of which is so retained, and all income therefrom, shall vest, only the right to possession thereof being postponed.

THIRTEENTH:

A. IF I and any person herein named or referred to shall die at or about the same time in or as a result of a common accident, disaster or other like cause, then I direct that, whether or not I shall actually have survived such person, it shall be conclusively presumed for all purposes hereof that I have survived such person.

B. If any person herein named or referred to (any such person being hereinafter in this Part referred to as the "measuring life") upon whose death the Trust shall terminate and any other person entitled to receive (whether outright or in trust) all or any part of the principal of such Trust upon such termination shall die at or about the same time in or as a result of a common accident, disaster or other like cause, then I direct that, whether or not the measuring life shall actually have survived such other person, it shall be conclusively presumed for the purposes of the distribution of the income from and the principal of the Trust created for the benefit of such measuring life that the measuring life has survived such other person.

B. 12.

FOURTEENTH:

A. I appoint DOUGLAS BRADSHAW, DAVID M. BERENSON and HOWARD E. REINHIMER, JR., or the survivor or survivors of them, as my Executors hereof. In the event of the death or resignation or the failure or refusal to act (as Executors) of any of said individuals, I appoint PHILIP ZIMET as alternate or successor Executor.

B. I appoint my son and the aforementioned DOUGLAS BRADSHAW, DAVID M. BERENSON, or the survivor or survivors of them, as my Trustees hereof. In the event of the death or resignation or the failure or refusal to act (as Trustees) of the aforementioned DOUGLAS BRADSHAW, DAVID M. BERENSON or my son, I appoint PHILIP ZIMET as alternate or successor Trustee.

C. I direct that no bond or other security shall at any time be required in any jurisdiction of my Executors and/or my Trustees named in this Will and at any time acting for the faithful performance of their duties hereunder.

D. Except as otherwise required by law, any and all of my Executors and/or my Trustees may at any time resign without the permission of any Court, Surrogate or Judge and without first accounting for their proceedings as such Executors or such Trustees by filing a written resignation in the Court in which this Will shall have been admitted to probate, and by giving notice of such resignation to my other Executors (if any) or my other Trustees (if any) then acting, but such resignation shall not operate to relieve any such Executors or any such Trustees of such Executors' or such Trustees' obligation ultimately to account for said proceedings.

E. Each of my alternate or successor Executors (if any) and each of my alternate or successor Trustees (if any) shall have all of the rights and powers, and all of the privileges and immunities, hereby granted to my original Executors and my original Trustees, respectively, and all of the duties and obligations hereby imposed upon my original Executors and my original Trustees, respectively.

FIFTEENTH:

I authorize my Executors, in the administration of my estate, and my Trustees, in the administration of the Trust, in their sole and absolute discretion, to the extent permitted by law:

A. to hold and to continue to hold any or all property, real and/or personal, tangible and/or intangible, owned by me at the time of my death, for such period or periods of time as they, in their sole and absolute discretion shall determine, whether or not the same shall constitute investments then authorized for fiduciaries by the laws of the State of New York or any other State.

E.R.
B. To invest, reinvest and keep invested the proceeds of any or all property, real and/or personal, tangible and/or intangible, sold by them or otherwise disposed of by them, whether by way of exchange, liquidation or otherwise, and any or all moneys at any time received or held by them, in such bonds, debentures, notes and other evidences of indebtedness, stocks (including stocks of so-called "investment trusts" and "wasting asset corporations: and interests or shares in common trust funds), securities, choses in action and/or other personal property, tangible and/or intangible, and/or in such real property as they in their sole and absolute discretion shall determine, whether or not the same shall constitute investments then authorized for fiduciaries by the laws of the State of New York or any other State.

C. To hold and to continue to hold, so long as they in their sole and absolute discretion shall determine, and to invest and reinvest in: (i) non-interest-bearing obligations issued at a discount and redeemable for fixed amounts (increasing at stated intervals), and (ii) bonds, debentures, notes and other evidences of indebtedness of, and stocks, securities and other interests in, newly organized corporations and other business enterprises, and (iii) to hold bonds, debentures, notes and other evidences of indebtedness of stocks, securities and other interests in, insolvent and/or bankrupt corporations and other business enterprises and of and in corporations and other business enterprises undergoing reorganization.

D. To hold and to continue to hold, so long as they in their sole and absolute discretion shall determine, and to invest and reinvest in, bonds, debentures, notes and other interests in, any corporation or business enterprise in which I may in any manner be interested at the time of my death and/or in which any such corporation and/or one or more of my Executors or my Trustees at any time acting, individually and/or as a fiduciary, may in any manner be interested and to participate, without restriction, in the conduct of the business of any such corporation or other business enterprise.

E. At any time and from time to time, to sell at public or private sale, and for such prices and upon such terms as they in their sole and absolute discretion shall determine, including on credit (and, if on credit, for periods of credit in excess of one year), any or all property, real and/or personal, tangible and/or intangible, at any time held by them, except that so long as HOWARD E. REINHEIMER, JR., shall be alive, my California property shall not be sold and so long as the trust created herein shall remain Parcel No. 1 of my Idaho Property shall not be conveyed.

F. Except as herein limited, at any time, and from time to time, to mortgage, exchange, partition and otherwise dispose of any or all property, real and/or personal, at any time held by them, and to lease the same for such term or terms as they in their sole and absolute discretion shall determine (including, without the permission of any Court or Judge, terms in excess of the period permitted by statute and terms extending beyond the duration of the Trust).

G. To deposit, and to keep on deposit for such periods as they in their sole and absolute discretion shall determine, in savings and/or other bank accounts, any or all moneys at any time received or held by them.

H. To join in, to consent to and/or participate in, and to dissent from and/or to oppose, any agreement, merger, consolidation, reorganization or exchange affecting all or any part of my estate, and/or the principal of such Trust, and to accept and hold any property which may be received as a result thereof.

I. To deposit any securities and/or other property with any protective reorganization or other committee, and to delegate discretionary power to any such committee, and to pay a share of the expenses and compensation of any such committee and to pay any assessments levied with respect to any securities and/or other property so deposited.

J. To exercise any conversion privileges and/or subscription rights available in connection with all or any part of my estate and/or the principal of the Trust.

K. To vote in person or by proxy on all stocks and other securities at any time held by them, and to delegate discretionary power to any proxies designated by them for such voting.

L. To compromise, settle and/or arbitrate any claims belonging to me or my estate or the Trust, or any claims against me or my estate or the Trust, and to reduce the rate of interest on, to extend or otherwise modify and/or to foreclose upon default or otherwise enforce any obligation to me or my estate or the Trust.

M. To borrow money for the purpose of paying taxes, making subscription, exercising options, paying assessments and for the accomplishment of any other purpose, and to pledge only for the purpose of paying taxes all or any part of my estate and/or of the principal of the Trust as security for such loans.

N. To remove from the United States all or any part of the personal property (or, in the case of such property the ownership of which is evidenced only by securities or other documents, such securities or other documents) at any time held by them.

The foregoing powers shall be supplemental and not exclusive, it being my intention that my Executors and my Trustees shall have all of the general powers of fiduciaries, and, in addition, said special powers and other powers reasonably to be implied therefrom or necessary for the proper exercise thereof. None of said powers shall be construed to limit in any manner any other thereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 25th day of December, 1973.

Chuck-

We'd be open to a proposal to leave some water in the ditch for conveyance loss. It just seems a lot easier to get a letter.

Jim,

I forwarded this to Doug Bradshaw to ok the fee and provide some documentation for bullet #3.

Relative to bullet #2, I am aware that the normal approach is to leave conveyance losses in the ditch for the remaining users, but I've never heard of other users having to provide consent to IDWR. This would mean one user could hold up any transfer application by simply withholding consent. That's not what the law says at all. Actual injury is to be determined by IDWR, not based on whether someone does or does not give consent. If someone feels aggrieved and disagrees, that's what the protest process is for.

Subject: Point of Diversion Transfer for Douglas J Bradshaw Trustee Under Will of Eleanor Reinheimer

Chuck-

After a review of the Point of Diversion Transfer for Douglas J Bradshaw Trustee Under Will of Eleanor Reinheimer, there are several items that need to be addressed before processing of the transfer can proceed.

- Barring evidence to the contrary, the total flow rate of the rights involved (page 1, item 4) should be 26.532 cfs (additive total of all the rights in the transfer) and this should be the flow rate amount on which the fee should be based, which would necessitate a fee of $2300.00 instead of the $820.00 submitted. If the flow rate associated with the shares in the Upper Wood River Water Users Association, Inc. could be limited in a condition to a lesser amount at the new point of diversion, then the total amount of water being transferred, and the accompanying fee could be reduced. We would need something in writing from the Upper Wood River Water Users Association, Inc. agreeing to adding such a condition to their rights.
- Because the transfer will change the point of diversion of rights 37-457A and 37-457B from its present location (the McCoy ditch) to a point downstream, a possibility of injury to the owners of other water rights diverting into the McCoy ditch exists. You will need to obtain written consent to the transfer from the owner of right 37-289 (City of Ketchum), which also diverts from Trail Creek into the McCoy Ditch.

- We will need evidence that Douglas Bradshaw has authority to sign for the trust. There should be a trust document demonstrating this.

Because these are major changes, it would be advisable to submit a new application. I will hold processing of the application until these issues are resolved.

Re: Application for POD transfer

Dear Corey:

Enclosed please find an application to modify a point of diversion on water rights 37-457A, 37-457B, 37-891A, and 37-892.

The first two rights are owned by the applicant. For these rights the point of diversion will be changed from the McCoy Ditch to a new pump station to be constructed at the location shown on the attached map. The applicant will no longer divert water from Trail Creek via the McCoy Ditch.

The second two rights are owned by the Upper Wood River Water Users Association, Inc., in which the applicant is a shareholder. For these rights, the new pump station will be added as a point of diversion. The McCoy Ditch will remain as a point of diversion under these rights since one other shareholder, the City of Ketchum, utilizes this ditch. A consent document is included, executed by the president of the Association, to allow this transfer to occur.

Finally, the land on which the new pump station will be located is owned by Sun Valley Resorts. A consent document is included, executed by the company, to allow the point of diversion to be located on this land.

The application fee of $820.00 corresponding to the diversion rate of 4.8 cfs is enclosed.

Cordially,

Charles G. Brockway, P.E.
