Correct it was Jared Simpson

Andrea,

I wanted to clarify that application 87675 is in the name of Jared Simpson, not Parker Venable. Venable is listed on the application as the owner of the property at the point of diversion, but the application is filed under Simpson.

I don't believe we currently have an open application in Venable's name, but can I get you to confirm that we are referring to the same application (or provide the application number associated with Venable if it is a different one?)

Thank You,

Christina Henman
