Thanks. Nothing's foolproof in the hands of a grownup.

Marion -

Attached please find a second attempt at transmitting shapefiles for both Ream Crockett and Dingle Irrigation.

So the last time I did precise amounts I was told to round up to the next whole unit!

Anyway, thanks.

Good morning,

In reviewing your stock water claim it was noticed that the amount paid was $150.00. In looking at the fee paid it was determined that the fee that was owed was $109.00. How we determined the amount for greater than 13,000 gal per day on .59 cfs, is $1.00 per .01 cfs which equals $59.00. We will initiate a refund to RMEA for the difference of $41.00. If you have any questions, please feel free to reach out to me.

Ms. Beck -

Attached are four Bear River Basin Adjudication claims for the Dingle Irrigation company, a scan of the cover letter and fee calculations that accompany the check, and a *.zip file that contains shapefiles for the convenience of the IDWR reviewers.

The claims inadvertently were signed on the "for individuals" line but actually are signed by the Chairman of the Dingle Irrigation Company, who is copied on this e-mail.

Please contact me if there are questions.

Thanks,

Bryce
