Per Robin: Her system for agriculture is hers alone. The system for residential potable water is shared between all three parties and is a completely separate system.

Please let me know if you have any further questions. I'm sending you the Notice of Appearance tomorrow.

All the best,

Good morning, We don't have a template. But we do have a guidance memo.

I've received questions about the spring that is the source of water for 97-4205. There are two other water rights that apparently have that spring as their source. Do you know if the system for right 97-4205 is separate from those two rights?

Good afternoon, Sandra,

Thanks for your email; I hope you had a great weekend, and sorry for not getting back to you sooner.

Please direct questions to me, and I apologize for omitting the Notice of Appearance. Is there a form/template that I can use to prepare one, and where should I submit or file it?

All the best,

Andrew Drexel

You don't often get email from sandra.thiel@idwr.idaho.gov. Learn why this is important

Hello, I have additional questions about Robin Cayton's water right. I do not see a notice of appearance for you in our documents. Am I directing questions to you or to Robin? If I am sending them to you please let me know and submit an notice of appearance.

Apologies for the terse email on a Friday afternoon. Hope you are doing well.

Hello, Sandra,

Please find the attached documents, which are submitted on behalf of Robin Cayton, for Adjudication Claim 97-4205:

- Declaration of Edward Hamacher
- Declaration of Shaun Savage with Exhibits

Note that the Declaration of Shaun Savage includes a photo, attached to the declaration as Exhibit 1, depicting a dated plate excavated on the property.

I also understand that you already have an affidavit/declaration for Christopher R. Oldham on file, entitled "Water Rights History." Please let me know if that is not the case.

If you have any questions or have issues with the attached files, please let me know.
Thank you.

All the best,

Andrew Drexel
