Hi Jared:

Ron Huff has confirmed that water is indeed piped up to that barn where the separate stockwater POU is situated. He maintains that he owns that he and Trina own the land where that barn/POU is located, but in any event the surrounding acreage is all owned by his mother-in-law, Jewel Steigers. Actually, title is likely held by the Leroy and Jewel Steigers Revocable Trust, of which Jewel is the Trustee.

Let me know if you have any additional questions.

Jim

Hi Jared:

No apologies necessary - we appreciate your efforts. I have a call out to the Huffs re your questions and will confirm when I hear back, but I am relatively certain the stock in upper barn is watered there. As for stockwater POU - Trina Huff is a Steigers. If I recall correctly, she and Ron acquired the property where the house (and well) are located from her parents, LeRoy and Jewel Steigers.

Thanks much,

Jim

Hey Jim,

Sorry to bug you again but I have another question about a different claimed filed for Ron and Trina Huff (85-15853). They claimed domestic and stockwater use. The place of use for the stockwater portion was placed on a piece of land owned by someone else (Steigers). I was wondering if you know if the water is piped to that barn or if the stock come down and drink near the well, which is located on the claimant's property by their house?
