5. Description of diverting works:

The water is brought from the springs to our crop fields via pipes and ditches. Originally we flood irrigated the fields until my father put in a sprinkler system in the 60s. In 71 or 72 I built my house and added it onto the system. We primarily use one spring, but there is a second spring that we can use when the main spring is running low.

6. Water is used for the following purposes:

12. Remarks:

Priority Date Explanation:

This is the date given on the license. My grandfather was Albert Sant. He developed and licensed the water in 1925. My farther continued to use the water after he inherited the property. In the 60's he added on the sprinkler system. I have continued to use the water.
