I would suggest withdrawing your Statement of Completion. The Department will issue a refund. You will get a proof due notice 60 days before June 1, 2026 to submit proof of beneficial use or request an extension of time to submit beneficial use if the project is not complete.

You can withdraw your Statement of Completion by responding to this email. Thank you.

Thank you for your response. No, there is no home currently, however there is an irrigation system for lawn care and fire prevention. Plus two separate "outbuildings" on the property. If that does not qualify as beneficial use. Then I suppose I would need to withdrawal.

Please advise.

Respectfully Bob Smotherman

The Department of Water Resources (Department) is in the process of reviewing permit 95-18092 for licensing. Aerial imagery that I have access to does not show a home or any kind of dwelling on the property. Has the home been built?

If there is not a home on the property, you could withdraw your Statement of Completion the Department received on November 20, 2023. The date to prove Beneficial Use is June 1, 2026.

Please let me know as soon as possible. Thank you.
