Dear Ernie & Esther Booth,

You are correct in your assertion the information on this claim does not represent your home. The claim 97-9086 correspondence that you received in your mailing is indeed for a different parcel under the name of Booth Trust; Roger Booth.

The notice of error letter you were mailed was misaddressed due to a data entry error. I apologize for all the confusion this has caused.

Best Regards,

Jared-

There is a problem here. I don't know what happened, but my home is in sec 36 not sec 8. Plus, I requested a date of 1960 not 1982.

I did some checking and there is a Booth trust in sec 8, somehow I think the two Booth Trusts got switched.

What do we do now? (Of course I already recorded it).

Ernie

Hello,

I am reaching out in regard to the NOE reply form you sent in for Adjudication Claim 97-9086. On the original claim, you marked down a 1982 priority date and sent in the NOE reply with evidence that it should be pushed back to 1972. After review of the evidence, it appears that the document is for another piece of property. The legal description on the document is listed as Section 36 and the property filed on is in Section 8. At this time, the priority date will be recommended as claimed based on the year-built date of 1980, but if you find evidence or documentation of an earlier date, let us know and we can potentially amend the claim to an earlier priority date. Keep in mind that the priority date is meant to reflect when the well first began being used for the home. Let me know if you have any questions.
