upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than $100 together with imprisonment in the county jail for 10 days; and not more than $2,000 or by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed 6 months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Interference With Headgate; Cutting Banks of Stream

Section 8532. If any obstruction shall be wilfully and maliciously placed on any overflow gauge in any stream of water which is used for irrigation and is under control of a watermaster, and such obstruction retards or impedes the free overflow of the water of such stream, thereby increasing the pressure against a headgate through which water is diverted by means of such dam, or if any headgate regulated by a water master shall be removed, broken, injured or interfered with so as to disturb the distribution of the water as regulated by the water master, or if any bank of the natural stream, the water of which is being used for irrigation and is being distributed by a water master, shall be cut away so as to increase the flow of water from such stream, thereby interfering with the distribution of the water as regulated by a water master, the person or persons so interrupting the flow of said water as aforesaid, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than $100 together with imprisonment in the county jail for 10 days; and not more than $2,000 or by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed 6 months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Injuries to Ditches and Appurtenances.

Section 8533. Any person or persons, who shall cut, break, damage, or in any way interfere with any ditch, canal, headgate, or any other work in or appurtenant thereto, the property of another person, corporation, or association of persons, and whereby water is conducted to any place for beneficial use or purposes, and when said canal, headgate, ditch, dam, or appurtenance are being used or are to be used for said conduct of water, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than $100 together with imprisonment in the county jail for 10 days; and not more than $2,000 or by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed 6 months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Injury to Measuring Devices.

Section 8534. Any person or persons who shall cut, break, injure, destroy, enlarge, change or alter any headgate, sluiceway, weir, water box, or other measuring device, the property of any irrigation district, corporation, or association of persons, or in the possession of, or in the use of, said irrigation district, corporation, or association, or the property
