State why an extension of time is requested, explaining how a diligent effort has been made to meet the deadline:
 Claimant has a large number of water rights and Claimant has been working with legal counsel for several months to complete claims. the process has been delayed because the Department database does not provide access to historical documents currently, and due to harvest has not been able to complete claims by the October deadline. Additional time is needed to complete the claims and establish all elements of the claims.
