

BEFORE THE DEPARTMENT OF WATER RESOURCES
OF THE STATE OF IDAHO

IN THE MATTER OF APPLICATION)
FOR TRANSFER NO. 90219 IN THE)
NAME OF RONNIE WAYNE LOSSER)

NOTICE OF PROPOSED DEFAULT ORDER

On December 15, 2025, Ronnie Wayne Losser (“Applicant”) filed Application for Transfer No. 90219 with the Idaho Department of Water Resources (“Department”). Taron and Sarah Sayler (“Protestant”) filed a protest on February 4, 2026.

The Department scheduled a pre-hearing conference to be held on July 21, 2026. Notice of the conference was served to the parties on June 10, 2026. The conference was held by video and telephone at the scheduled time. The Applicant and representatives for the Applicant attended the conference, the Protestant did not appear.

Rule 700 of the Department’s Rule of Procedure (IDAPA 37.01.01.700) states in relevant part:

If a party fails to appear at the time and place set for hearing, prehearing conference, status conference, or informal settlement conference, or fails to respond to a written information inquiry, the agency may serve upon all parties a notice of proposed default against the absent or non-responsive party.

Rule 701 of the Department’s Rule of Procedure (IDAPA 37.01.01.701) states:

Within seven (7) days after the service of the notice of proposed default order, the party against whom it was filed may file a written petition requesting that a default order not be entered. The petition must state the grounds why the petitioning party believes that default should not be entered.

Rule 702 of the Department’s Rule of Procedure (IDAPA 37.01.01.702) states in relevant part:

The agency shall promptly issue a default order or withdraw the notice of proposed default order after expiration of the seven (7) day time period to file a petition challenging the proposed default order. If a default order is issued, all further proceedings necessary to complete the contested case shall be conducted without participation of the party in default. All issues in the contested case shall be determined, including those affecting the defaulting party.

PROPOSED DEFAULT ORDER

The Protestant failed to appear at the time and place set for the pre-hearing conference. Pursuant to Rule 700, the Department proposes issuing the following default order:

It is HEREBY ORDERED that Taron and Sarah Sayler are dismissed as a party to the contested case for Application for Transfer No. 90219.

RIGHT TO CHALLENGE

Pursuant to the Department's Rule of Procedure 701 the Protestant has seven (7) days after the service of this Notice of Proposed Default Order to file a written petition requesting that they not be dismissed from the contested case. The petition must state the grounds why the default order should not be entered.

Dated this 24th day of July, 2026.
