TRUST AGREEMENT

THIS TRUST AGREEMENT, Made and entered into this 23 day of August, 1976, between GLEN C. KNAPP, of 2423 South Kimball Avenue, Caldwell, Canyon County, Idaho, herein-after called "Grantor," and THE IDAHO FIRST NATIONAL BANK, Boise, Idaho, a National Banking Association, hereinafter called "Trustee,"

WITNESSETH, That

WHEREAS, The Grantor desires to create a trust effective this date and the above named Trustee agrees to act as trustee thereof;

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties mutually agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

The Grantor does hereby and by these presents convey, transfer, assign, set over and deliver to the Trustee the property itemized on Schedule "A" attached hereto and by reference made a part hereof.

The Grantor, or any other person, may from time to time deposit with the Trustee additional property or assets, and may transfer, bequeath or devise by will other property to the Trustee.

All of the property so transferred and delivered to the Trustee shall, upon written acceptance thereof by the Trustee, constitute the trust estate and shall be held, managed and distributed as provided herein.

ARTICLE II

The Trustee shall collect and receive all income, revenue and profits arising from, or accruing to, said trust estate. Such sums from the income of the trust estate shall be paid to the Grantor in quarterly or other convenient installments during Grantor's lifetime as the Grantor may from time to time direct or to such person or persons and in such proportions as Grantor may from time to time direct. Such sums from the principal of the trust estate shall be paid to the Grantor as the Grantor may from time to time direct.

If any such proceeds, property, assets or income remain in the possession of the Trustee at the date of the death of the Grantor, such funds and property shall be held in and constitute a part of the principal of the trust corpus.

Should the Trustee at any time consider the Grantor to be unable for any reason to direct the Trustee with respect to disposition of such sums from the trust estate, the Trustee is authorized in its sole and absolute discretion to expend for the Grantor such sums from the principal or income as Trustee shall deem necessary or advisable for the support, maintenance and health of the Grantor.

ARTICLE III

Upon the death of the Grantor, the Trustee may pay any unpaid debts, taxes due prior to the Grantor's death, and expenses of last illness, and the funeral and burial expenses of the Grantor, cost of administration of the estate of the Grantor, and estate and inheritance taxes resulting from the death of the Grantor, unless the Trustee, in its absolute discretion, determines that adequate property is otherwise available in the Grantor's estate from which such debts, taxes and expenses may be paid. Without limiting the authority of the Trustee, it shall not be required to make any payments authorized herein unless a claim in form satisfactory to it is filed with the Trustee within 90 days after the death of the Grantor; and after the expiration of such 90 day period, the Trustee shall be fully protected in distributing the trust property in the manner otherwise provided herein.

The balance then remaining of the entire trust, principal and income, less the payments permitted in the event of death, together with any additional property or assets. Trustee shall then hold, administer and distribute the balance as provided in the following Article IV.

ARTICLE IV

A. The Trustee shall hold, manage and control the property comprising the trust estate, collect the income therefrom, and out of same, shall pay all taxes and other incidental expenses of the trust, including its own commissions, and shall hold or distribute the trust estate and the income therefrom to or for the benefit of my son, Robert P. Knapp; my granddaughter Roberta Eilene Miller born August 28, 1951; my granddaughter Patricia Knapp Lenz born December 31, 1952, the children of my granddaughters and for my housekeeper, Maude White.

B. The Trustee shall pay the entire net income to or for the benefit of the beneficiaries in the following manner:

Trustee shall pay the real estate taxes and other tax assessments but Robert P. Knapp shall have the full responsibility of maintaining the residence and providing fire insurance coverage on the buildings during the term of the trust.

(3) The remaining net income shall be distributed equally between my granddaughters, Roberta Eilene Miller and Patricia Knapp Lenz, in quarterly or other convenient installments as requested.

(4) If one or both my granddaughters should not survive the termination of this trust, their issue shall receive their share of income.

C. So long as the trust continues, the Trustee is authorized to pay to or for the benefit of the above named beneficiaries except Maude White out of the principal or accumulated income of said trust, such amounts as it in its absolute discretion may consider necessary or desirable for such beneficiary's needs for proper support, maintenance, health and education, after taking into consideration to the extent the Trustee deems advisable the beneficiary's independent income and other resources known to the Trustee and the Trustee may use such portion of the principal as the Trustee deems necessary for the education of the children of my granddaughters.

D. The Trustee is directed to distribute the corpus and any and all undistributed income of this trust upon the death of Maude White and my youngest granddaughter having attained age 50 in the following manner:

(b) If at death any beneficiary be without issue then living, then the remainder of the trust shall be divide among the surviving beneficiaries of the Grantor, or to their living issue if deceased, by right of representation.

ARTICLE V

A. All receipts and expenditures shall be administered by the Trustee, subject to any limitations stated elsewhere herein and allocated as to principal and income as provided in the Uniform Principal and Income Act, being Chapter 10 of Title 68, Idaho Code, as now in effect and as it may hereafter be amended.

B. To carry out the purposes of the trust created under this Trust Agreement, and subject to any limitations stated elsewhere herein, the Trustee is vested with all of the powers and authority as set forth in the Uniform Trustee's Powers Act, being Chapter 1 of Title 68, Idaho Code, as now in effect and as it may hereafter be amended.

C. The Trustee is specifically authorized and empowered to hold and retain in the trust the farms originally deposited with the trustee or that may be subsequently deposited.

D. The Trustee shall manage the trust estate and may sell, exchange, lease for terms either within or beyond the duration of the trust, lend, relend, invest and re-invest the trust estate or any part thereof in any kind of property which men of prudence, discretion and intelligence exercise for their own account specifically including, but not by way of limitation, acquisition of corporate obligations of every kind and preferred and common stocks, including any Common Trust Fund of which it is Trustee. The Trustee shall have the same general powers that an individual being the absolute owner of real and personal property possesses not inconsistent with the purposes and intentions of the trust. The Trustee is authorized to retain in the trust, in the same form, as that in which they were received by the Trustee, assets of any kind, and to continue and operate any business or interest therein which may be received hereunder as long as the same produces a reasonable income, and it appears to the best interest and advantage of the trust estate.

E. The Trustee shall be entitled to receive compensation for its services hereunder in accordance with its schedule of compensation established from time to time by the Trustee's Trust Department for the administration of trusts of a character similar to this trust, and such compensation may be collected annually by the Trustee, out of income or principal or both, and shall be shown in its annual accounting.

F. The Trustee shall not be liable for an error in judgment but shall be liable only for its willful misconduct or negligence.

G. The Trustee may from time to time render to the Grantor an account of its transactions as Trustee. The Grantor shall have full power to settle finally any such account and on the basis of such account, to release the Trustee, individually and as Trustee, from all liability, responsibility or further accountability for its acts or omissions as Trustee. Such settlement and release by the Grantor shall be binding upon all income beneficiaries, remaindermen and other interested parties, even if then under legal disability or not as yet in being, and shall have the force and effect of a final decree, judgment or order of a court of competent jurisdiction rendered in an appropriate action or proceeding for an accounting in which jurisdiction was obtained of all necessary and proper parties. The foregoing provision, however, shall not preclude the Trustee from having its accounts judicially settled if it shall so desire.

H. Trustee may resign as Trustee at any time by so notifying in writing the Grantor. Upon its resignation, a successor Trustee shall be appointed by the Grantor. If no such appointment is made by the Grantor, or if Grantor is deceased, a successor Trustee may be appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction upon petition of the resigning Trustee or of any person or persons interested in the trust. After the death of the Grantor the Trustee may resign by petitioning a court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee. This provision shall also apply to the resignation of any successor Trustee. A successor Trustee shall succeed as Trustee of this trust with the same authority and powers and subject to the same restrictions as the original Trustee.

ARTICLE VI

A. This trust shall be construed so that an adopted person shall be considered as though he or she were the natural issue of his or her foster parents, whether the beneficiary is such adopted person or any person claiming through such adopted person.

B. Neither the principal nor the income of the trust herein created shall be liable for the debts of any beneficiary nor shall the same be subject to seizure by any creditor of any beneficiary under writ or proceedings at law or in equity, nor bankruptcy proceedings, nor other legal process. No beneficiary shall have power to sell, assign, transfer, encumber, or in any other manner to anticipate disposition of his or her interest in the trust estate or the income produced thereby.

C. In exercising its discretionary authority with respect to the payment of net income or principal of the trust estate or any share thereof to any beneficiary under any of the provisions hereinabove set forth, the Trustee shall take into consideration to the extent the Trustee deems advisable any income of or other means available to such beneficiary for support, maintenance, health and education from sources outside of this trust that may be known to the Trustee; and the determination of the Trustee with respect to the necessity for and the amounts of any payments from net income or principal to be made to or for the benefit of any beneficiary, as hereinabove provided, shall be conclusive upon all persons howsoever interested in this trust.

ARTICLE VII

A. The Grantor reserves the right and power to alter, amend or revoke this Agreement, at any time and from time to time, either in whole or in part, without the consent of the Trustee or any beneficiary hereunder or under any of said policies, by written notice to the Trustee to that effect; provided, however, that the duties, responsibilities and rate of compensation of the Trustee shall not be altered or modified without its written consent.

B. The laws of the State of Idaho shall control the construction and interpretation of this Trust Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, The parties hereto have executed this Agreement the day and year first above written.

Re: Change in Ownership for Water Right No(s): 63-2413B

Dear Water Right Holder(s):

The Department of Water Resources (Department) acknowledges the receipt of correspondence changing ownership of the above referenced water right(s) to you. The Department has modified its records and has enclosed a computer-generated report for you.

Updating the ownership record for a water right does not reconfirm the validity of the right. When processing a Notice of Change in Water Right Ownership, the Department does not review the history of water use to determine if the right has been forfeited or deliberately abandoned through five years or more of non-use. To read more about water right forfeiture, including how to protect a water right from forfeiture, please see Idaho Code §§ 42-222 and 42-223.

Please note, the ownership of water right 63-2413A was not updated. This water right is not appurtenant to property described in Exhibit A of the quitclaim deed provided. The ownership of 63-2413 was not updated either. This is not a valid right. 63-2413 was split into 63-2413A and 2413B.

Because water rights 63-2413 and 63-2413A were not updated and 63-2413B was not split (the deed described a 50% undivided interest to both couples), the Department is requesting a refund of $50. This refund will be sent to the Law Offices of Maybon, PLLC under separate cover from the Idaho State Controller's office.

Also note, water right owners are required to report any change of water right ownership and any change of mailing address to the Department within 120 days of the change. Reporting forms are available from any office of the Department, or from the Department's website.

If you have any questions concerning the enclosed information, please contact me at 208-287-4942.

Sincerely,

Jean Hersley

RE: Change in Ownership Water Right No(s): 63-2413B, 63-2413A, 63-2413

Dear Interested Parties:

The Department of Water Resources (Department) acknowledges receipt of your Notice of Change in Water Right Ownership (Notice).

Our review of your Notice indicates that additional information is required before the Department can process the change. The information required is indicated below:

- Evidence of Water Right Ownership: Water right 63-2413B is the only water right appurtenant to the land description on the quitclaim provided only. The Department will need conveyance documents from the current owner of water right 63-2413B, West One Bank, to the Lenz's.
- Water right 63-2413A is appurtenant to property currently owned by Ronald & Tina Platt. Unless you have documents that convey the land or water right to you, the ownership of water right 63-2413A will not be updated.
- Water right 63-2413 is not a valid water right.

Because the Department cannot process the Notice without proper documentation, we will hold any action on your notice pending receipt of the necessary information. If we do not receive the necessary information within 30 days we will return your notice and all attachments and your notice will not be processed. You can provide the requested information by mailing to the address above or email pdf's to file@idwr.idaho.gov, attn: Jean.

Also, please note that water right holders are required to report any change of ownership and/or mailing address to the Department within 120 days of the change. Forms to update ownership or update your address are available from any office of the Department or on the Department's website.

If you have any questions regarding this matter, please contact me at 208-287-4942.

Sincerely,

Jean Hersley
