Hello,

The protest period for the amended transfer application referenced above has ended with no new protests filed. A copy of the amended application is attached.

If the amended application has resolved the concerns of the protestant, you may use the attached withdrawal of protest form or submit a withdrawal in your own format.

If further discussion is needed, we will move forward with scheduling an online informal settlement conference; in which case I will need all parties to respond to this email no later than next Thursday, 10/1/26, with any dates during the months of October, November, and December during which you would be unable to attend.
Thank You,
