Clive,

I missed that as part of the application for transfer Kootenai Properties Inc included information regarding a change in ownership and representation by Travis Thompson. Attached are the letters that will be sent to them in tomorrow's mail. I will also provide email notice to Mr. Thompson similar to the email I sent to you with copies of all the letters.

Clive,

The attached letters are in today's outgoing mail. Each letter includes calendars for November, December, and January for participants to mark their availability. As this proceeding is somewhat unprecedented, I am still working through the procedural options if no other parties besides the petitioners respond. Until I am confident in another option, such as issuing a decision without a hearing as you requested, I am moving forward with the standard hearing procedure by providing notice and preparing to schedule and pre-hearing conference.

Please return your availability calendars prior to the 30 day deadline.
