Will do.

I notice on here that it says you could set up a zoom meeting if needed. Usually, that is something that we would need the information for in advance so that we can put it on the meeting notice. However, if you don't want to set one up in advance without knowing if you need it, I can just put "If you would like to make accomodations to attend remotely, please contact Bonnie at ..." and let you communicate that information directly to those interested.

Thank You,

Christina Henman
