Information You Should Know

Great news if you are currently receiving separate statements for your checking and savings accounts! All of your checking and savings accounts with U.S. Bank(R) will soon be combined into one easy to read, informative monthly statement. Your combined statement will include the same detailed account information you are currently receiving, and will include all of your checking and savings accounts that have the same address and account social security number. In the unlikely event that you need to continue receiving separate statements, please write us at U.S. Bank, P.O. Box 1800, St. Paul, MN 55101-0800 and include your name and account number(s).
