Minutes of the 1996 Annual Meeting
Water District 13-S, Whiskey Creek

Irrigators of Water District 13-S, Whiskey Creek, met in the scout room of the Williams Ward Church in Niter, Idaho on Saturday, March 2, 1996 at 1:15 p.m. The meeting was called to order by last year's chairman, Daniel Mickelson. He called for nominations for a chairman. Rules were suspended and Daniel was retained as chairman and Martha as secretary.

Members present were: Dewayne Mendenhall, Marty and Blair Mickelson, Steve and Michael Tingey, Gene Rasmussen, Glenn Turner, Roger and Daniel Mickelson, and Martha Bassett.

The Minutes of the 1995 meeting were read. Motion was made by Steve Tingey and seconded by Roger the minutes be approved and stand as read.

The watermaster's report was given by Glenn Turner. A motion was made by Blair and seconded by Roger to accept the report. Motion carried.

Nominations for a watermaster were called for. A motion was made by Dewayne and seconded by Gene that we retain Glenn as watermaster. . Motion carried,

The Chairman called for a discussion as to the membership of the advisory board. Gene moved and Blair seconded the motion that we retain the same advisory board* Motion carried.

The rest of the meeting was up with a discussion of the remodeling or replacing of the headgate of the Mickelson ditch, Daniel passed out sketches of alternative ways of handling the project. The members discussed types of measuring devices and the cost of the project to the members. It was the consensus of the group that with the share-holders doing the work themselves the biggest cost would be for the cement. The chair asked for a motion for proceeding with the project. Blair moved and Glenn seconded the motion That Riley be in charge of the project and involved members assess the project. Plans were made meet at the site on Saturday, March 9.

There being no further business, Blair moved and Gene seconded the motion to adjourn the meeting. Motion carried at approximately 2:30 p.m.

*Advisory board: Dewayne Mendenhall

Daniel Mickelson, and John Kunz.
